

Miss Sylvia Reischke Is Married

The Bethel Baptist Church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Sylvia E. Reischke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Reischke, and Clarence Auch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Auch of Mott, North Dakota, on Saturday night. The 8 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Rudolf Woyke.

Miss Marian Giese was the soloist and the bridegroom sang "Because" as his bride entered the sanctuary. Miss Ruth Giese was the organist. Bouquets of yellow and white gladioluses were arranged at the altar and the pews were marked with clusters of summer blossoms and satin ribbon. Misses Erna Jean and Lydia Harmon, young nieces of the bride, and wearing yellow frocks, lighted the tapers.

For her wedding the bride chose a ballerina gown of lace, fashioned with long sleeves and square neckline with collar. Her fingertip veil of illusion cascaded from a sweetheart shaped bonnet of net. She carried a white Bible marked with a lavender orchid and a shower of stephanotis.

Miss Erna Reischke was her sister's honor maid and wore a ballerina dress of ice green marquisette over taffeta and the bridesmaid, Miss Ruth Rae, wore a bluish pink marquisette ballerina frock over taffeta. They carried nosegays of pastel gladioluses. Carol Kuhn was the flower girl.

Brother Is Best Man

Alvin Auch of Mott, N. D., stood with his brother as best man. Ushers were Milo Kuhn, Charles Saucy and Marvin Schirman. Orville Meth of Odessa, Wash., was the groomsman.

Mrs. Reischke wore an afternoon dress of lavender silk for her daughter's wedding with a corsage of rosebuds. The groom's parents came west for the nuptials and Mrs. Auch wore a navy blue suit with matching accessories and corsage of roses.

At the reception in the church parlors Mrs. Gordon Rand of Portland and Miss Carmen Roth poured. Mrs. Oscar Groz of Wapato, Wash., sister of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Eric Schuberg, cut the cake. Serving were Miss Carolyn Giese, Miss Dorothy Casper, Miss Janette Saucy and Mrs. Waltrout Fuchs. Mrs. Frank Rytter,

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Meyer (Lorraine Schuessler) whose marriage was an event of August 16 at the Christ Lutheran Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schuessler, Valley Center, Kansas, and the groom is the son of Mrs. Marie Meyer. (Artz Photography).

sister of the bride, passed the guest book.

The newlyweds will spend their honeymoon in Southern Oregon and after September 1 will be at home in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where both will attend the North American Baptist Seminary. For traveling the bride changed to a brown faille suit with green accessories.

Miss Erwert Married at St. Mary's

MT. ANGEL—Miss Arlene Erwert, daughter of Mrs. Anna Erwert of Woodburn, became the bride of James Anderson at a double ring service in St. Mary's Catholic church Saturday morning, August 23. The Rev. Gabriel Morris, OSB, read the vows and officiated at the 9 o'clock nuptial mass with Leon Schiedler and Anthony Dummer as altar boys.

Mrs. Vincent Smith played the wedding march and Bernard Smith sang. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ruth Witt of Mill City.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Warren Erwert. She wore a princess style gown of white satin, fashioned with long train, and a yoke of Cluny lace embellished with seed pearls. Her scalloped-edge veil of illusion was held with a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a lace-covered white prayer book, topped with three cattleya white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Donald Flatman of Mill City, sister of the groom, was matron of honor. She wore a ruffled white net ballerina dress and headdress of net and vanda orchids. Her bouquet was a crescent arrangement of purple orchids and white gladioluses and stephanotis.

Lavender and White Color Scheme
The bridesmaids were Mrs. James Bradshaw of Salem and Miss Mary Lou Faulhaber of Mt. Angel. They were gowned exactly like the honor attendant, but carried cascade bouquets of lavender orchids and white gladioluses.

The best man was Alex Erwert, brother of the bride. The groomsmen were Donald Flatman, brother-in-law of the groom, and Harold Erwert, brother of the bride. The ushers, Robert, Charles and Clarence Erwert are all brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a black and white faille suit with matching accessories and a white and purple orchid corsage. The mother of the groom chose a navy blue suit, pink and blue accessories with white and purple orchid corsage.

A wedding dinner was held at St. Mary's hall with a reception following in the afternoon. Mrs. Charles Stirber, Canby, and Mrs. Alfred Bochsler of Mt. Angel cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Ed Sachi of Martinez, Calif., all sisters of the bride poured. Misses Janice Norton, Woodburn, Mayanna Miller, Mary Lou Statham, Woodburn, Arlene Duda, Anita Rehm, and Donna Zielinski, all cousins of the bride, assisted.

After a honeymoon in Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be at home in Salem. For traveling the bride wore an aqua suit with brown trim and brown accessories.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Mt. Angel Preparatory and the bride graduated from Mt. Angel Academy and has been employed as a clerk-typist in Salem.
