Sgt. Boltjes Honored at Korea Base

T/Sgt. Galen B. Boltjes, husband of Marjorie Boltjes of 1662 S. 13th St., has been selected as airman of the month from his squadron with the 58th Air Base Group in Korea.

Boltjes, who recently added the third oak leaf cluster to his air medal for completing 75 missions into Korea from February to July, was selected for this honor on the basis of his outstanding contributions to the Air Force.

In a letter to the Commanding Office of the 58th Air Base Group recommending this honor, Boltjes' record is lauded and he is described as exemplifying "great credit on himself and the United States Air Force." He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Boltjes of 1660 Berry St.

Interior Decorating can be FUN!
By AGNES MEYER

Go Ahead... Be Different

We all want our homes to be attractive to look at, and comfortable and convenient to live in. We want them keyed to today's tempo of living. We DON'T want them to be rubber-stamp copies of our neighbors.

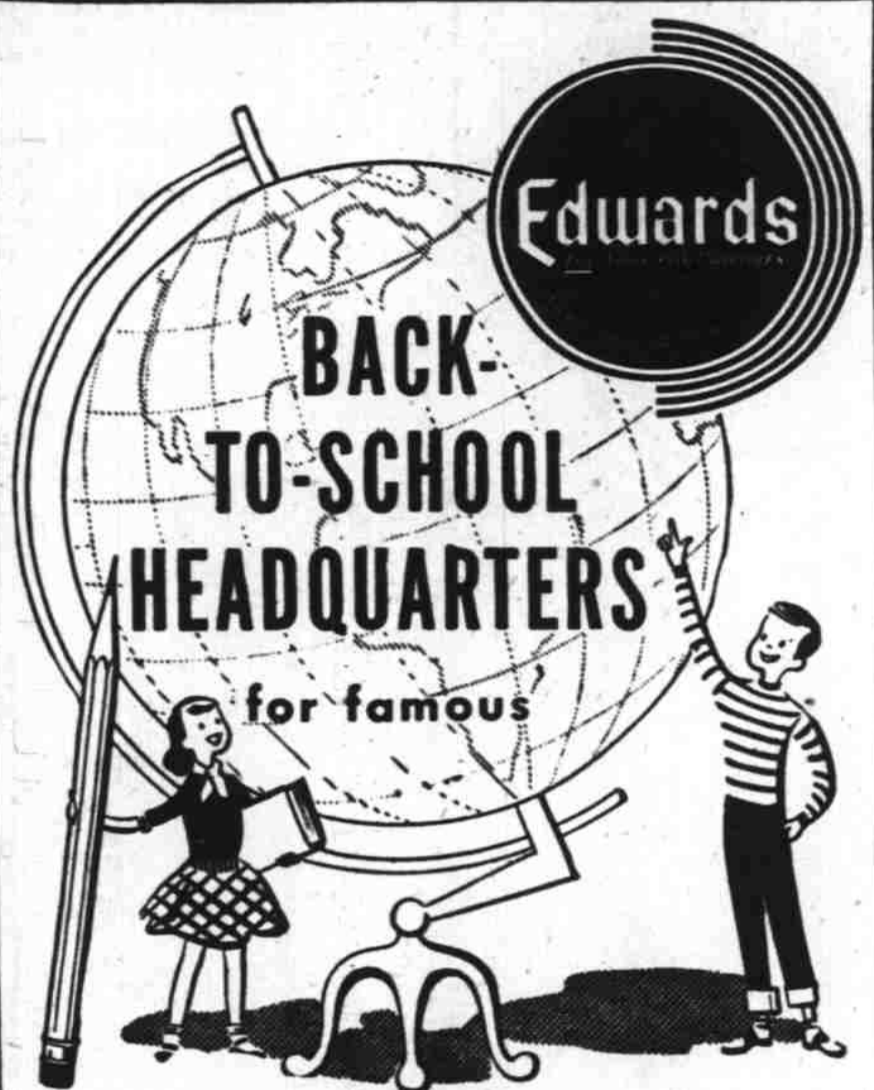

That's what makes home decorating and furnishing such an exciting challenge. It's the way YOU combine colors, arrange furniture, select furnishings and accessories—and add all those indefinable little touches of unexpected whimsy (or grandeur) that makes your home an expression of YOU. That's what gives it individuality and distinction. Sets it apart from all others.

Several touches of charming originality are evident in the efficient kitchen-dining room sketched above. Background has been planned around the birch hutch, table and chairs. (Maple or pine would be equally effective.)

Walls and woodwork are soft Copenhagen blue. Linoleum floor is cherry-red. White seersucker (needs no ironing) curtains have cherry-red and blue trim. Pin-up lamp (between windows) with red shade adds a note of whimsy. Extension table has drop leaves that fold down when not in use. Hutch provides handy place for dishes... also drawer space for linens and silver.

If you feel unsure of your ideas—feel that you can't go ahead with your home decorating unaided—then by all means come in and have a talk with our friendly, trained staff. It will be our pleasure to help you in any way that we can.
