

Chapel Setting For Nuptials On Monday

Miss Joyce Joene McClendon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McClendon, and William David Chase, Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chase, Aurora, exchanged their marriage vows at a 3 o'clock ceremony on Monday, August 25 in the chapel of the First Christian Church.

Dr. David Ferguson, Pratum, retired Presbyterian minister and grandfather of the groom, performed at the ceremony. He also officiated at the wedding of the groom's parents.

For her marriage the bride chose a white ballerina dress with lace bodice and a full double net skirt over tulle. The sleeves were short and she wore lace mitts. Her veil was caught to a headress of satin and seed pearls. She carried a Bible covered with lace, which was topped with a white orchid and Stephanotis streamers.

Charles MacKenzie, principal of the Canby Union High School, where the bride has been a teacher, was the soloist. Mrs. Elton Benedict was the organist. Gerald A. Bigler was the usher.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose dress with black accessories and corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother chose a gold nylon dress with beige and brown accessories. Her corsage was a cymbidium orchid.

On Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is the usually accepted "How do you do" the correct acknowledgment to the introduction when a friend brings a stranger to your home?

A. In this case, a somewhat more sincere and gracious acknowledgment is in order. To put your friend at ease, you should tell him you are happy he brought his friend. And to put your friend's friend at ease, you should say, in effect, "I'm pleased you could come."

Q. Is it all right to use a piece of bread to wipe up gravy or jelly from the plate?

A. At one time this was considered a grievous social error. But now it is all right. Be careful though not to go at it too heartily, so as to give the impression of mopping up a floor!

Q. In what way can a bride show appreciation to a group of friends who have given her a shower?

A. She may give them a luncheon, tea or card party in her new home as soon as possible after her marriage.

Mrs. Jessie Singleton and Mrs. Marcia B. Smith have returned from six weeks at the Oregon City home of Mrs. William Mulvey, who was away on a trip.
