

Former Jason Lee Minister

PORTLAND (AP) — The Rev. Thomas Acheson, 65, associate pastor at Centenary-Wilbur Methodist Church here, died in a Portland hospital a few hours after suffering a stroke at his home Thursday.

He formerly was pastor at the Jason Lee Methodist Church in Salem, taking the pulpit in 1918 and entering the Kimball School of Theology. He was graduated from Willamette University in 1924.

After 10 years at the Jason Lee Church, he moved on to churches in Tacoma, Boise, Richland, Wash., Spokane and Portland. He suffered a heart attack in 1949, and went to his native Ireland for 19 months rest. He returned to the church here in 1951.

Surviving is the widow, the former Mary Cone of Salem; a son, Thomas Acheson Jr., Orono, Me., and two daughters, Mrs. Paul Libby, Salem, and Mrs. James Wolfhagen, Orono.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. (DST) Monday at Centenary Wilbur Church in Portland.

Police Link Fugitive to Stolen Cars

Recovery of two stolen cars near Cottage Farm east of Salem added fuel Thursday to the investigation of a jail escapee arrested here Wednesday night.

Ivan David Ryan, Portland, was identified as an escapee from Snohomish County, Washington, jail by Federal Bureau of Investigation Agents who questioned him at the Salem city jail.

Agents said the stolen autos figuring in their investigation were a 1949 Ford taken Tuesday night from Alsmen Motors used car lot in Salem and a Frazer believed taken Aug. 30 from Washington.

Portland law officers also were interested in questioning Ryan regarding burglaries in that area, it was reported. Ryan's criminal record dates from 1936, when he was a juvenile, and includes terms in the Oregon State Penitentiary in 1940 for burglary and 1942 for manslaughter.

Ryan was arrested at Everett, Wash., last Feb. 18 while burglarizing a motor company and was found guilty of second degree burglary on April 10 by a jury. He was held in the Snohomish County jail awaiting action on his motion for a new trial and escaped June 20. The FBI entered the picture on a federal warrant charging unlawful flight to avoid confinement, after Ryan left Washington.

MASS ACCEPTANCE SCORNE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United States and five other Security Council nations rejected Wednesday Russia's proposal for simultaneous admission of 14 countries to the U. N. They demanded instead consideration of each applicant on its merits.

CHICAGO—An empty coffin and placards carried by pickets signify their wish that the House Un-American Activities Committee be "buried deep" as they parade around the U. S. Courthouse in Chicago where committee hearing investigating Communism in defense industries, was going on. Some 200 chanting pickets swarmed through corridors of the Courthouse after Lee Lunsigren, 37, self-avowed former Communist, testified that Communists rigged an election of officers in a union which has thousands of members working on defense orders. Happy Awakening

RENO—Political novice Tom Mechling, 31, is embraced by his attractive wife, Margaret, in their Reno home, as they were informed they had pulled the political upset of Nevada history in winning the Democratic Senatorial nomination. Mechling, an unknown ex-newspaperman, and his wife who conducted a door-to-door campaign, figure they talked personally to 50,000 Nevadans in their trailer tours of the state. Alan Bible, candidate sponsored by Senator Pat McCarran, conceded defeat. (AP Wirephoto to The Statesman).

LIFE EXPECTANCY OF U.S. MALES

6. KOHLER An AP Newsfeature Pictograph
If you are a baby these days you can expect to live much longer than grandpa did, on the average. But these Metropolitan Life figures show that if you are grandpa now, your average future life will not be much longer, on the average, than was that of your own grandfather.
