Troy Expects State Aerials

LOS ANGELES (P) - Pacific Coast Conference fans got words of assurance Monday that they will not be embarrassed by the brand of football played this year.

Henry R. (Red) Sanders, head coach of UCLA, sounded the note of optimism as the Southern California chapter of the Football Writers of America launched their fall series of weekly luncheons. Sanders' observations were sandwiched in between these predictions:

By Coach Jess Hill, Southern California-the Trojans expect a hectic passing attack when they open the season against Washington State here Sept. 19.
Hill admitted defensive pass drills figures largely in preparing for Washington State. "We know that their ends, Ed Barker and Don Steinbrunner, and their quarterback, Bob Burkhalter, will fill the air with footballs," Hill declared.

Fain Musial Lead Leagues

NEW YORK (# - Ferris Fain defending American League batting champion, is showing signs of faltering in his bid to retain the title, but his closest pursuers also are slumping in the stretch.

Fain, Philadelphia first sacker, dropped to .322 last week as he garnered eight hits in 32 at bats. But New York's Gene Woodling, in second place, dropped to .325 and Dale Mitchell, Cleveland's vet-eran outfielder, tumbled seven points to third ;lace at .324.

In the National League, Stan Mu-sial held a 15 points dvantage over Ted Kluszewski. The Cardinals' slugger moved up two points to .355 with a 10-for-26 effort while Kluszewski showed a four-point improvement to .320. Larry Doby of the Cleveland Indians leads the American League in home runs with 30 and was tied with Philadelphia's Gus Zernial for runs batted in honors at 95. Hank Sauer, Chicago Cub outfielder, maintained his National League advantage in the power department with 35 homers and 116 runs driven in.

Two unbeaten hurlers, Sandy Consuegra of Washington in the American League and Al Corwin of the New York Giants in the National, topped the pitchers in per-centage. Consuegra showed a 6-0 record while Corwin's was 5-0.
