Maryland Takes Opener After Scare; Tech Wins

'Terps' Nose Tigers 13-10; 'Huskers Win

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK (AP)—In the space of a little more than a minute, the University of Maryland saved its vaunted football reputation Saturday with a tight 13-10 victory over the University of Missouri at Columbia, Mo.

Rated the second greatest team in the land in the pre-season Associated Press poll, the Terrapins were pushed around for 59 minutes. In fact, Maryland was held scoreless until the fourth quarter. The hero was Jack Scrabbed, Maryland's All-American candidate, who lived up to his pre-season notices—at least in the final quarter. He tossed passes for both Maryland touchdowns, one to Ralph Felton and the other to Lloyd Colter-yahn.

Thus the winning streak of the Terrapins was upped to 13, even though they did it the hard way. The other top schools that got into action on the first big Saturday of the college season had no such troubles.

Georgia Tech, rated No. 2 right behind Maryland, did the expected when it ambushed the Citadel, 54-6. California, which has been installed as the favorite for the Pacific Coast Conference crown, polished off the College of the Pacific, 34-13. The Golden Bears are ranked No. 8 among the teams.

Kansas, one of the threats for the big seven title, showed it had more than the experts bargained for when it swept to a 13-0 victory over Texas Christian in a game televised throughout the country as the NCAA's TV "game of the week."

Nebraska Flashes
Nebraska, with Bobby Reynolds in the top role, plastered South Dakota, 46-0, and demonstrated it will be a team to be reckoned with if the 1950 All-America holds up. Bobby, who rode the bench most of last season, was virtually the whole show as he ripped the South Dakota line time and again for big chunks of yardage.

Bevos Top Seals, Cinch 4th Place Tie--At Least

PORTLAND (AP)—Lefty Royce Lint won his tenth consecutive game for the Portland Beavers Saturday, a 10-4 victory over the San Francisco Seals. The win assured Portland of at least a tie with San Diego for fourth place in the final Pacific Coast League standings.

San Diego bowed to Los Angeles 5-1. Tom Lovrich, rookie from Vancouver, hurled Seattle to an 8-2 win over the Champion Hollywood Stars. At Oakland the A's beat Sacramento 6-5.

The teams close out the 1952 campaign with Sunday double-headers.

Beavers Defeat Redskins 14-7 in Grid Opener

Baker Sparks Stater Attack

OSC Tallies Twice In Opening Period

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Fullback Sam Baker's pulverizing running and a dogged defense in the clutch carried Oregon State College to a 14-7 football victory over the University of Utah Saturday night.

Utah's showing against the heavier and more highly rated Pacific Coast Conference team was surprising, although the Utes' heralded passing attack never materialized.

A desperate attempt to score in the fourth quarter after Utah recovered an Oregon State fumble on the Beaver 7-yard line lost four yards in four plays. Oregon State's superiority on the ground was best seen in the statistics. The Beavers gained 290 yards running to 89 by Utah.

Baker scored two touchdowns in the first period, and gained 143 yards rushing. His first tally came shortly after the opening kickoff. With the ball on the O.S.C. 40, quarterback Jim Withrow passed to Jack Gotta on Utah's 18. A series of line plays carried to the Ute five, where Baker plowed through center for a touchdown. Jim Cordial converted.

Utah punted after a first period drive stalled and Oregon State took over on the Beaver 36. Halfback Jack Pinion, alternating with Baker, carried for a series of first downs to the Utah one. Then Baker went through center for the second touchdown. Cordial again converted.

Utah's first offensive power was seen in the second period. The Utes carried the ball to midfield, but bogged down. After an exchange of punts, Utah started another drive on the Ute 47 that carried them to glory. Quarterback Don Byrdalch tossed a 23-yard pass to Jack Cross who took it on the Oregon State 30 and threaded his way through the tacklers for a touchdown. The scoring play was good for 53 yards.

Charles Kalani converted. The Beavers' great defensive stand shocked the Utes in the fourth quarter. A long punt by Utah quarterback Carter Cowley bounced out of bounds on the Oregon State 2. On the second play, Wally Jackson fumbled and Ray Hall recovered for Utah on the O.S.C. seven.

Oregon State's heavy line held on two ground plays and two Utah passes were batted down and the Beavers regained the ball on their own 11. Utah lost a total of four yards in the series of downs.

A crowd of 14,000 was surprised by Utah's strong showing after a humiliating defeat by Oregon State last year.

Pocekay Wins WIL Bat Title

Solons Top Fielders, Cop 'Dee-Pee' Crown

Final unofficial statistics released by the Howe Bureau of Chicago disclose that Wenatchee Catcher Walt Pocekay won the 1952 Western International League batting championship with a mark of .352, beating out Vancouver Catcher John Ritchey, last year's titlist, by eight points. Pocekay also had most hits 203, total bases 281 and doubles 45.

Cecil Garrlott, Victoria manager won home run honors with 17. Victoria's Ben Lorino had the pitching title with a 24-7 mark. Victoria also led team batting with a .280 percentage.

Salem won the fielding title with a .970 mark, and tallied most double plays, 166. Final statistics:

Stengels Still 1 1/2 Ahead

As A's Blanked; Indians Win; Roberts Nips Giants for 26th

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
The New York Yankees clung to their 1 1/2 game American League lead over Cleveland Saturday but Brooklyn practically ended any chance of another New York Giant "miracle" by opening up a five-game lead in the National with only seven to play.

Eddie Lopat shut out Philadelphia with four hits, 2-0, for the Yanks' win in the afternoon. Cleveland crushed Detroit in a night game, 11-3, with Al Rosen and Luke Easter hitting home runs to stay on the Yanks' heels.

Sore-armed Carl Erskine blanked Boston with three hits and Jackie Robinson's fourth straight hit gave Brooklyn a 1-0 victory in 10 innings in a day game.

Then Saturday night the Philadelphia Phils' Robin Roberts sent the Giants reeling into a near-hopeless position by beating rookie Al Corbin, 3-2, for his 26th win.

The "magic number" required to clinch the pennant for the Dodgers now has been reduced to three. Any combination of three Brooklyn wins or Giant defeats will send Chuck Dressen's Brooks into the World Series.

The Yanks still are in a tough wrestle with the Indians. They have seven to go and Cleveland only six. The "magic number" for Casey Stengel's fourth straight flag now is any combination of six.

Cleveland trailed Detroit in the early stages but caught fire on the homers by Rosen and Easter.

Cards Eliminated
The only positive action of the daytime baseball was the elimination of the St. Louis Cardinals from the pennant race. By losing to Chicago, 4-1, the Cards fell with only seven to play. They still have an outside chance to nip the Giants for second money.

Warren Hacker, a red hot pitcher down the stretch, held the Cards to three hits to win his 14th at the expense of Gerry Staley's 14th defeat.

Junior Highs 'Jam' Friday

Something new and different for the Salem Junior High football teams this season—they are to get their season started next Friday night in a five-game jamboree at Waters Field, starting at eight o'clock.

Each game will be 12 minutes in length and will be played as follows, in order: Parrish Greys vs. West Salem, Leslie Blues vs. West Salem, Leslie Blues vs. Parrish Cardinals, Leslie Blues vs. Parrish Cardinals and Leslie Greys vs. Parrish Greys.

The league's regular season starts October 3. All games are to be played at 3:30 p.m. on Fridays throughout the season.

No fishing license is required in the District of Columbia.

Stan Musial went hitless in four trips while Frankie Baumholtz, the contender from Chicago, had one hit in four times at bat to narrow Musial's batting lead. Musial is hitting .3333, Baumholtz .3316.

Fighters Feud After Battle

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Miller manager of heavyweight Coley Wallace, said Saturday his fighter took a wild swing at Jimmy Bivins in the dressing room at St. Nicholas Arena Friday night and said "I'll kill you next time we fight."

Wallace claimed he had been threatened by Bivins before the veteran Cleveland boxer knocked him out in the ninth round with a sneak right punch.

"He thumbed my man a couple of times," said Miller. "I complained to the referee Harry Ebberets and he said he warned Bivins. After the fight, Bivins got dressed first. He came in to our room to shake hands with Coley and that is when it happened."

Grants Pass Defeat Highlights Prep Grid Play
By The Associated Press
Grants Pass, defending state high school champion, became the first upset victim of the new grid season this week end, tumbling before North Bend, 24-7. It was the first loss for Grants Pass in 24 consecutive games.

Most of the favorites came through with victories as the first big round of district games was played, although one district champion, North Marion in district 3-A2, fell before a veteran Williamson team, 34-20.

Grants Pass' defeat did not count in district play, nor did another defeat by a Southern Oregon power, Medford, which took a 31-13 loss at the hands of Vancouver, Wash.

The play in Class A-1:
District 1 and 2 to come.

District 3—Co-favorites Central Catholic of Portland and Gresham won. Central defeated Milwaukie, 13-7; Gresham pounded Parkrose, 32-0.

4.—Hillsboro got past tough Beaverton, 32-20, to become undisputed favorite.

5.—A loaded Marshfield team walloped Cottage Grove, 40-7. Eugene kept pace with a 41-7 win over Springfield.

6.—No district games, but Klamath Falls downed Roseburg, 38-6.

7.—The Dalles notched first district win as expected with 20-7 victory over Mill-Freewater. Baker scored twice in the last minute to win a king's-X game with La Grande, 18-6.

8.—Salem routed Astoria in a non-district encounter, 34-0. In district play Bend trounced Corvallis, 34-6, and Albany walloped Lebanon, 41-6.

1.—St. Helens won as expected from Vernonia, 24-2.

2.—No district games, but powerful Toledo downed Concordia of Portland, 32-14.

3.—Willamina defeated the defending champion North Marion team, 34-20.

4.—Canby, Mt. Angel, Silverton and Molalla scored first-round wins with no favorite yet established.

5.—University High trounced St. Francis of Eugene, 35-6.

6.—Strong Ashland won as expected from Phoenix, 44-6.

7.—No district games.

8.—Prineville downed Columbia Prep of Portland in a non-district game, 13-6.
