On Club Agenda . . .

Salem Woman's Club members will open their fall season on Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. at the clubhouse with Mrs. Carl Chambers, president, presiding.

For the program Mrs. Chambers and Mrs. Merle Travis, immediate past president, will give highlights of the General Federation of Women's Clubs convention in Minneapolis, which they attended as delegates in the late spring.

Piano selections will be given by Miss Donnetta Reese, daughter of Dean and Mrs. Seward Reese. Miss Reese is now on the music faculty at Linfield College. She attended Willamette University, where she studied under Prof. Ralph Dobbs, and received her master's degree at Indiana University. She has also studied under Anis Fulehn. Before returning to Oregon Miss Reese was professor of piano at West Virginia Wesleyan College.

Mrs. Claude H. Murphy heads the tea committee, assisted by Mrs. I. M. Dough-ton, Mrs. Floyd M. White, Mrs. B. F. Williams, Mrs. Lawrence Fitzgerald, Mrs. J. M. Devers, Miss Kate Dickson, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mrs. Harry W. Elgin, Mrs. J. R. Cornell and Mrs. Howard Hunsaker.

Juniors to Fete Advisor

Mrs. Albert C. Gragg, the Salem Junior Woman's Club new advisor, will be honored at an informal reception Monday night when club members entertain at the home of Mrs. Richard Lankow, 760 N. Winter Street, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Clinton Ault is arranging the program for the evening and Mrs. Frank D. Ward is in charge of refreshments.

A bride of Saturday night was Mrs. Roger Norman Dasch, the former Patricia Ann Wilson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kenneth Wilson. The groom is the son of Mrs. Helen L. Dasch. The marriage took place at St. Paul's Episcopal Church with a reception following at the Wilson home. (Jesten-Miller Studio).

Two ardent rooters at the Willamette University football games this season will be the new coaches' wives, Mrs. Jerry Frei and Mrs. Ted Ogdahl, who with their families have moved to Salem from Portland. Mr. Ogdahl is the head football coach for the Bearcats and Mr. Frei is assistant football coach. The Ogdahls have two sons, Wally and Greg, and the Freis have a son, David, and daughter, Judy.
