Anniversary For Marrs

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Marr, 1850 N. Winter St., will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at a family dinner on Sept. 24 at their home. The occasion will also celebrate Mr. Marr's birthday.

The couple's marriage took place in Smith Center, Kansas and they have lived in Oregon for 40 years. For many years Mr. Marr was custodian of the Livesley Building. The Marrs have four children, five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Celebrating the occasion with the couple will be their four children, Alvin Marr, Mrs. John Wheeler and Mrs. Ed Burgess, Salem, and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer, Portland.

State President Talks to League

Mrs. A. V. Logan, of Corvallis, state president of the League of Women Voters, addressed the Salem League at the Golden Pheasant Thursday at the Golden Pheasant. Pointing out that "these are the times which confuse men's minds," Mrs. Logan described the principles of the League in its dedication to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government. It was emphasized that the League is a non-partisan organization, does not support political candidates, and works through its voter's service to present the facts on issues which will be placed on the ballot.

Mrs. Jason Lee, acting president of the Salem League, introduced Mrs. George H. Swartsley in charge of arrangements, who presented committee chairmen and members of the board to the group.

A feature of the meeting was the distribution of the Voter's Information sheet, outlining measures appearing in the Oregon general election ballot November 4, with the position which the state organization has taken in the issues. Mrs. Gerhard Pagenstecher, chairman of the Voter's Service, announced that these could be picked up at the Red Cross Pharmacy or by calling her.

Meeting Days Are Changed

Hal Hibbard Auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans held a business meeting at the Salem Woman's Club on Thursday. The auxiliary voted to change meetings to the third Thursday with a covered dish dinner at 12:30 every three months.

Preceding the meeting a dinner was served with camp and auxiliary members having birthdays in July, August and September honored. Guests were Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Hoffman of McMinnville. Serving on the committee were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McClung, Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Wood, Mrs. Charles Kinzer and Mrs. Laura Bugher.
