Annual Doughnut Sale to Be Held

In order to meet requests, Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds are announcing dates for the fall doughnut sale. Solicitation by the girls in their neighborhoods will begin on October 15 and October 22 has been designated as deadline for orders. Delivery will be made on Saturday, October 23. Mrs. George Todd is acting as chairman of the drive, with Mrs. Raymond Olson as her co-worker.

Profits from the sale will help the girls groups to finance their projects and activities. Of the many works carried out recently is the Freedoms Foundations Award to Camp Fire Girls for participation in the "Dolls to Foster Friendship" project. Frequently, a group adopts a family at Christmas or Thanksgiving. Some groups have made outstanding contributions to the Korean Aid appeal, while some of the older girls continue to serve within local institutions. The Horizon Club members assist at the Fairview Home.

Camp Kilowan, the Willamette Area Camp, also receives a part of the sale profit to be applied for year-round maintenance and repair. Awards of special campships are available for presentation to the best Camp Fire and Blue Bird salesmen. Girls from 7 to 18 will participate, and as new groups are now beginning, this will be the first sales experience for many.
