

U.N. Diplomats In New York for Assembly Meet

By A. I. GOLDBERG

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Leading diplomats of the 60 United Nations streamed into New York Sunday for the seventh UN General Assembly which opens Tuesday morning. Korean peace plans stand high on the program.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson was due here early Sunday night with his aides. They carry the outline of a plan to have the UN vote a new appeal to Mao Tse-tung and Red China to accept a truce on UN terms offered at Panmunjom. Russian peace plans are being brought here by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky, who arrives with his staff Monday.

The session's opening days promise an out-and-out clash between the U. S. and Russia on Communist tactics on many world fronts. A new note of Red penetration in the UN employees staff was introduced last night to plague Acheson.

Demands Pledge
Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) a member of the U. S. delegation, under Acheson, demanded that the State Department push a purge of alleged American Reds working for the UN. The State Department was silent on the demand. The permanent U. S. Mission here said it knew nothing about the action Wiley said he called for a week ago.

Trygve Lie, UN secretary-general, said a few American nationals had already been fired from the UN when U. S. sources have provided clear-cut evidence of Communist affiliation. He said he would fire any others on which the evidence was unmistakable. But he said he would not fire anybody "on mere suspicion or smears."

In addition to meeting the expected Soviet bloc "Slam America" campaign, Acheson and his aides will have to deal inside the delegation and with UN officials on the Wiley charges.

The U. S. delegation will hold its first organization meeting Monday.

day. Wiley task has not yet been discussed but a delegation spokesman said sessions appointed for the assembly always are assigned one or two important political topics.

Acheson himself will sit in the U. S. assembly's political committee to handle the Korean question. Vishinsky always sits in that important group whenever a prime question is up for debate and then follows it up in the assembly.

The U. S. secretary is listed as first to speak in the general policy debates which may get under way by Wednesday.

The first session Tuesday morning will be given over to short statements by New York's Mayor Vincent Impellitteri, Lie, U. S. Delegate Warren Austin, and the Assembly's last president, Luis Padilla Nervo, Mexico.

West Salem Scouts To Renew Charter

West Salem Boy Scout Troop 15 will renew its charter and plan future activities at a meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the scout hall.

The troop's project is first aid in the Nov. 1-2 Scouting Action Fair in Bush's Pasture Park.

Scoutmaster Don Crenshaw said several boys had completed advancement requirements on a recent weekend camping trip to Longbow Camp on the South Santiam River.

More than 150,000 people work in the Pennsylvania coal industry.
