Hunters Will Be Honor Guests At Reception

One of the largest social affairs of the weekend will be the golden wedding reception this afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Roma C. Hunter. Hosts for the occasion are their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Lietz, and grandson, Robert Hunter Lietz. The affair will be held at the Scottish Rite Temple with friends invited through the press to call between 3 and 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter were married in Waldo Hills at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, the late Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hall. They have resided in Salem ever since. Among the guests who attended the wedding expected to be present for the celebration are Mrs. Cyrus Hewitt, Salem, who was the honor attendant, Mrs. William Burt Powell, Agate Beach, Mrs. Ralph Linville, Yachats, Ore. Hall, Portland, Hubert Hall, Sweet Home, Mrs. A. A. Keene, Salem, and Joseph Smith, Portland, brother of Mrs. Hunter. Miss Clover Miller of Oakland, Calif., long-time friend of the couple, has come north for the occasion.

The goldenweds will receive informally with their son-in-law and daughter. Greeting guests at the door will be Bobby Lietz, Martha and Jean Minto, Douglas Minto, Douglas Simmons and Sande Tomlinson.

Messiah Rehearsal Begins on Monday

Plans of the Salem Oratorio Society to make its tenth annual presentation of Handel's Messiah during the holiday season were announced this week by Chairman Roy Dahlen.

First rehearsal at Waller Hall on Monday, October 20, is expected to bring out many new choirs of choral singers, he says. Experienced soloists and chorists will be welcomed, according to Dean Melvin Geist, director. About 300 persons are expected to appear in the December production.

Committee chairman announced for the society's activities are: finance, Dr. L. E. Barrick; music, Miss Lena Belle Tartar; membership, Mrs. Charles Sherman; publicity, Silas Gaiser; stage, Frank K. DeWitt; property, Marvin Roth.

Members of Bethel 35, Job's Daughters will meet Monday night at Beaver Hall at 7:30 p. m. Friendship night will be observed with members of Bethel 34, Independence, and Bethel 43, Salem, invited as guests.

The AAUW Literature group will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Nora Thompson, 460 N. Winter St., at 1 p. m. Mrs. Charles Cole is the assisting hostess. Mrs. Charles Hatcliff will review "Sea Around Us."
