By MILTON MARMOR
LONDON (AP)—Moscow is quietly liquidating the Cominform, the liquidating the Cominform, the organ Borba said Sunday.

A Belgrade radio report added, however, that "Moscow has not renounced the aims for which the Cominform was designed, but is only changing the form of its aggressive design."

The Cominform, successor to the Comintern, was founded in Poland in April, 1947, and established at Belgrade on Oct. 5, 1947. It moved to Bucharest, Romania, after Premier Marshal Tito was read out as a Communist heretic in June the following year. The original members of Cominform, which is an abbreviation for Communist Information Bureau, Russia, France, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Romania, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia and Hungary.

Borba's article said Moscow intends to have the Cominform disappear quietly from the world scene without attracting the notice of the public. It claimed that one of the main reasons for the disintegration of the organization was "the complete failure of its activity against Yugoslavia."

The paper charged that in four of Cominform's five years of life, the organization has sought unsuccessfully to liquidate Yugoslavia under Tito. It did this, Borba continued, by instigating 4,575 border incidents, killing and wounding 50 Yugoslav citizens and sending hundreds of "diversionists and spies" into Yugoslavia.

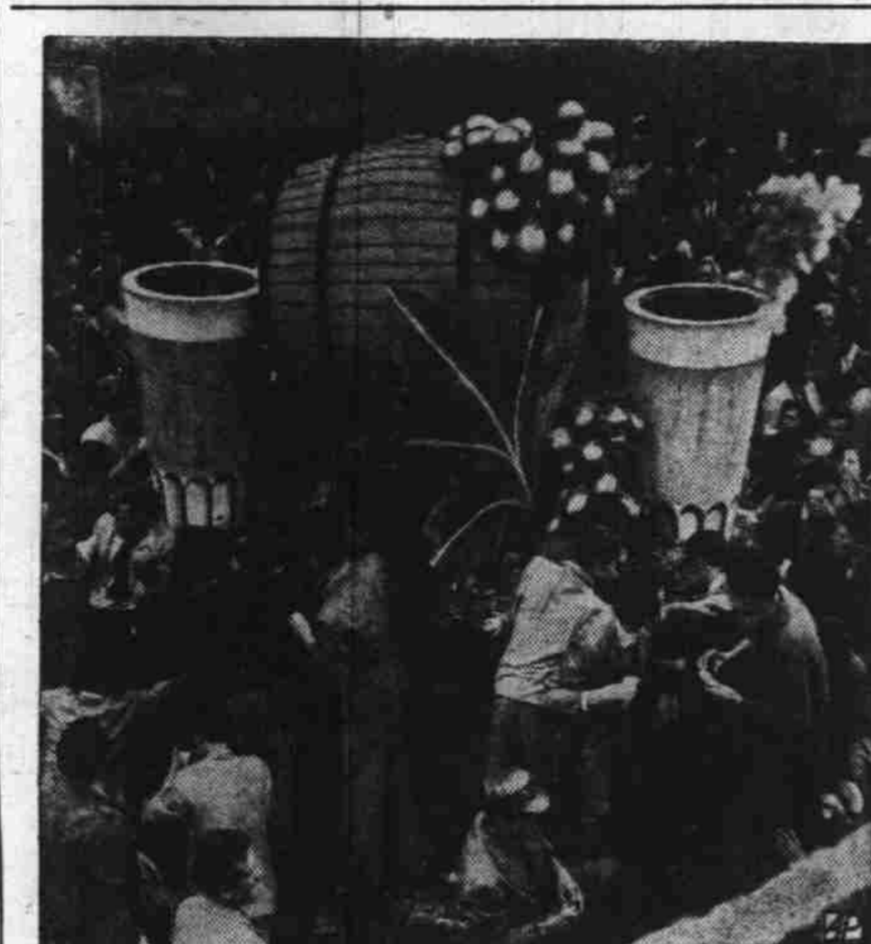

Borba characterized the Cominform as a "mere instrument of Russian imperialism, which in the enslavement of Eastern European countries has obediently fulfilled its role of assistant."

One of the principal functions of the Cominform in Bucharest has been the publication of a weekly organ called "For A Lasting Peace, For A People's Democracy."

NEW YORK—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Vishniy gestures as he presents Communist terms for an immediate truce in Korea before the United Nations General Assembly in New York (Oct. 18). Vishniy's repetition of demands which the United Nations has repeatedly rejected dashed already-alternate Western hopes for an early settlement of the Korean war. (AP Wirephoto to The Statesman.)
