Hunter's Bullet Hits Farmer

HOOD RIVER (AP) — A deer hunter drew the blame Monday for the wounding of a farmer who sat down in the open at his farm, five miles south of here.

Martin Sczuba, 43, a fruit grower, said he was sitting on a log 150 yards from his house, when two shots were fired at him. The first missed, but the second hit his side.

The enraged Sczuba took off in pursuit of the rifleman, but could not find him. He was not seriously wounded, and after searching for a while he drove to a hospital here for treatment.

Stock Market Backs Down

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market backed down Monday with quiet nervousness.

The moderate retreat was made against the background of a spreading strike of coal miners and a heightened discussion of Korean peace in United Nations circles.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost 30 cents at $104.80. The industrial component of the average was off 20 cents, the railroads off 50 cents, and the utilities remained unchanged.

Volume was a meager 1,050,000 shares.

Losses in the railroad section underlined the peril of a lengthy coal strike.

Wheat Market Moves Ahead

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat moved up around a cent on the board of trade Monday, partly because of an improvement in flour business but mainly because the southwest continued to be gripped by drought.

Action of the bread cereal helped sentiment in other grains. Both oats and corn scored fractional gains, and the upturn in corn contrasted with weakness for this cereal in the spot market.

Soybeans lost early gains, ending lower as fats and oils markets weakened.

Wheat closed ⅛-1¼ higher, corn ¼-⅝ higher, oats ⅛-¾ higher, rye 1½-2½ higher, soybeans ¾ lower to ¼ higher and lard 15 cents lower to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher.
