Around Town

By JERRYME ENGLISH

WELCOME HOME ... for Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Shinn, who returned to the capital Friday from a five weeks stay in Boston ... they made the trip both ways by plane ... While in Boston they visited a few of the New England states and along the Atlantic seaboard ... they also took interesting sightseeing trips in and around Boston, viewing all the historical places and museums ...

A trip east ... for Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins, who returned this weekend from a month's sojourn ... they first visited in Detroit with Mrs. Collins' sister and then went up to Bay City, Mich. to visit their former homes ... The travelers made stops in Chicago, Washington, D.C. for several days, a week in New York City, Boston, Atlantic City, and Philadelphia ... they returned west via the southern route, stopping in San Francisco and Fairport ... Mr. and Mrs. Bradford C. Collins, and granddaughter, Robin ...

In the bay area ... for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Huntington, who visited with their son, Kay Huntington, who now lives in San Francisco ... The Huntingtons went south by train and returned home with their daughter, Miss Shirley Huntington, who is at Fairfield at Travis Air Force Base with the Red Cross ... Miss Huntington will remain in the capital a few days with her family before returning south ...

Vacationing ... in San Francisco last week were Dr. and Mrs. Merle Brown ... they also visited with Colonel and Mrs. Ira Wintermute, who are stationed nearby at Hamilton Field ...

Visitors of note ... Mr. and Mrs. John McCulley have had as their house guests the past week Mr. and Mrs. Dan Garcia of Long Beach, Calif., and Fred Carmichael and daughter Susan, of Pendleton ... Mrs. Garcia and Mr. Carmichael are daughter and son of Mrs. McCulley ...

A reunion ... of longtime friends this past week at the home of Mrs. Comele Stuttaford ... she had as her house guest, Mrs. Regula Hanna of Fairmont, Minn. ... on Sunday they were joined by Mrs. Edith Stone of Albany ... the three women were friends in Iowa over fifty years ago ... Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Stuttaford graduated in the same high school class ...

Guests ... at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Ross the past week were their daughter, Mrs. Douglas Frasier and son, Bobby, on Vancouver, B.C., and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Milo Ross of Seattle ...

THE PARTY WHIRL ... Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hay, who are leaving this weekend for Portland to make their home, will be honor guests at a farewell party Wednesday night when Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Devers Jr. entertain at their Stuyvesant home ... Twenty-five friends of the Hays have been bidden to a buffet supper and informal evening ...

An revoir ... Mrs. Roger Quackenbush, who leaves Oct. 30 for Okinawa to join her army captain husband ... Thursday night Mrs. James Henery is entertaining with an informal get-together at her Manbrin Gardens home on Wayne Drive for the traveler ... The group has been getting together for no-host dinners during the past year ... and this time the occasion will honor

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Campbell, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at an open house at their country place near Perrydale on Oct. 5. The Campbells have one daughter and two grandchildren.

Campbells Are Honor Guests

DALLAS—Observing their golden wedding anniversary on October 5 at their country home were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Campbell, who were married on Oct. 5, 1902. They were married at the home of Mrs. Campbell who was Mamie Flanery before her marriage. Mrs. Campbell was born at the home, 2 miles west of Perrydale, where they were married and Mr. Campbell was born just 2 miles north of there. They established their home just halfway between the two farms and have lived there for the 50 years of their married life.

The Campbells had two children, a daughter Aladine, who is now Mrs. Mark O'Dell and who lives on the home place of Mrs. Campbell; and a son Cleo, who was killed in a tractor accident in 1921. Mrs. O'Dell has two children, Lary and Brenda, who are both students at Perrydale.

Mrs. O'Dell arranged the open house honoring her parents on October 5. A host of friends were present for the occasion and among those attending were nine who were present at the wedding 50 years ago. They were the four sisters of Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. A. D. Virgil Lamb, Miss Joan Aitkin and Miss Alice Howard were added to the teaching staff this year. Those returning from last year are Mrs. Emily VanSanten, Mrs. Kathleen Toycon, Mrs. Emylyn Branson, Mrs. Rebecca Burnham, Miss Hazel Rieke and Arthur Roring.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beecroft and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Eichelberger, Terry and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beecroft, Corvallis, and the hosts.

AMITY—Miss Marie Church, missionary to Korea for twenty years, was guest speaker at the recent meeting of the W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church. Mrs. Glen Stevenson presided. Plans were made for the circle meetings on Oct. 22 at the home of Mrs. F. E. Meeker.

Bridge Units to Be Organized

Duplicate bridge players in Salem have started a campaign to help other Western Oregon cities establish units of the American Contract Bridge league. A delegation will go to Eugene this week, while Lebanon, Roseburg and others may come later. Duplicate games already are being conducted in Albany, Corvallis, North Bend, Redmond, Seaside and Medford. The Salem organization of 135 members, which started four years ago now has three tournaments at the Elks club and one at the Women's club every week.

Jack Shepard of Corvallis and Ellis H. Jones were high in an eight-table Howell movement Friday with Charlie Tambling and Mrs. Walter M. Cline, close behind. Others awarded points included William F. Leary, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Walter A. Barsch and Mrs. Rupert Park. In the Wednesday afternoon game Walter M. Cline and Mrs. F. C. Lutz and Mrs. Herbert Reddick and Mrs. Donald Duncan were winners, while Mrs. W. R. Newmyer and Mrs. Asa I. Eoff, and Mrs. Harold Muhs and Mrs. Stanley Neuens were second.

In the junior tournament Mrs. E. E. Boring and Ray Kemp, and Mrs. Lin Miles and Donald Huff were high with Miss Margaret Drysdale and Denis Lavender, and Donald Duncan and Charles L. Newsom in second positions. High scores in the senior game went to Mrs. Arthur L. Lewis and Mrs. Milton D. Parker, and Mrs. Rupert Park and Ellis H. Jones. Others awarded points included Mr. and Mrs. Max Moore of Scio, Howard Pickett and Mrs. Dorothy McClain, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bishop of Chico, Calif., Mrs. Arthur S. Binegar and Mrs. C. E. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Webb, and Mrs. Donald Duncan and Mrs. F. C. Lutz.

Marriage Announced

FALLS CITY—Shirley Dennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dennis, and Charles Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Williams were united in marriage Friday night, October 17 at the Methodist Church, with the Rev. James Royer officiating. A reception was held at the Dennis home. Mr. and Mrs. Williams left for Roseburg, where they will make their home.

Weaver to Lecture

Mrs. Marguerite P. Davison of Lancaster, Pa., author of "A Handweaver's Pattern Book" will lecture on her specialized field at the Salem Public Library on Wednesday, Oct. 29 at 2 p.m. The public and especially those interested in weaving are invited to attend. She is being sponsored here under the auspices of the Salem Weavers Guild.

Mrs. H. H. Scheidel will be hostess to members of the P.L.E. and F. Club at her home, 1165 S. 16th St., Wednesday night at 8 p.m. Mrs. Grace Thomas will be the co-hostess.

Tea for Advisory Committee

Tea will be served at the Marion County health office Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. to women of the new Salem citizens' advisory committee on public health nursing.

Many organizations have designated committee members. These along with any other women interested in working with the nurses are invited to the tea at which functions of the group will be explained.

Mrs. E. A. Meola is chairman. Hostesses for the tea are Mesdames Arthur Atherton, Lawrence Brown, Orville Nichols and Loren Richey.

Play Series Dates Are Announced

The 20-30 Club will again sponsor three stage plays direct from New York with a New York cast. The first one is a musical, "The Fledermans", which will be presented Nov. 3 at the Salem High School auditorium. The other plays to be given during the year, the dates to be announced later, are two comedies, "Jenny Kissed Me" and "Glad Tidings." Reserve and general admission tickets for the series are now available and maybe obtained from Don Schmidt.
