Adeline Haury, Married to Mr. Ellson.

Exchanging their vows at an 8 o'clock ceremony on Tuesday night at the Immanuel Memorial Church of Pratum were Miss Adeline Haury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Haury, and Edwin Ellson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ellson. The Rev. W. A. Regier officiated at the nuptials before a setting of autumn chrysanthemums and dahlias. Grover Welty was the soloist and Mrs. Regier the pianist.

Of white satin was the bridal gown, fashioned with a nylon lace yoke with Peter Pan collar and lace panels on the full skirt extended into the court train. A tiara of seed pearls held in place her fingertip veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of white Fuji chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Leslie Jewell was the matron of honor and Mrs. Eldon Wilgus the bridesmaid. They wore Nile green gowns with full skirts and carried bouquets of winter pink chrysanthemums. Diana Roth was the flower girl and wore a lavender frock.

Royce Linnhart stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Blaine Veteto, Elmer Haury and Daniel Haury.

Reception Follows

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Haury chose a blue tulle gown with navy accessories and corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Ellson wore a brown taffeta dress with brown and pink accessories. Her flowers were also pink carnations.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Lawrence Fisher and Miss Dorothy Zimmerman presided at the coffee urns and Mrs. Harvey Fox and Mrs. Raymond Gerig cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Roger Lang, Miss Betty Jo Haverson, Mrs. John Manittas, Mrs. Lyle Knower, Miss Alma Stauffer, Mrs. Fred Hensch, Mrs. Adam Hofstetter and Mrs. Dan Stauffer.

After a wedding trip the newlyweds will be at home in Salem. For going away the bride changed to a brown and white gardenia suit with brown accessories and corsage of roses.

Cook's Miscellany

Winter Pears, Olives, Tomatoes Covered Here in Cook's Mixture

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Woman's Editor

Here are a few oddments in the cooking line:

Fresh winter pears poached in an orange juice syrup make a grand light dessert. Peel, core and halve the pears and cook until barely tender in the simmering syrup of 1 cup orange juice, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons lemons juice and 3 tablespoons grated orange rind.

Mold the ingredients for a regular Waldorf salad—apple celery, raisins and walnuts—in apricot whole-fruit nectar to make a refreshing springtime salad. Thicken nectar with plain gelatin and add one or two tablespoons of lemon juice to sharpen the flavor.

ADD OLIVES

A few chopped ripe olives shaken with the ingredients for French dressing add an interesting touch to a salad. One-third cup of chopped ripe olives is about right for ¼ cup of dressing.

Cheese cubes tossed in a green salad add flavor plus protein.

A quick and lovely dessert is a macedoine of grapefruit, oranges and pineapple covered with lemon juice and honey and sprinkled with coconut. Brownies or chocolate cake go with this.

TOMATOES BETTER

Vary scalloped tomatoes by sprinkling grated cheese over them. As soon as potatoes are finished baking, prick them with a fork so the steam will escape and prevent the potatoes from getting soggy.

Very small cream puffs make dainty refreshments at tea. They may be filled with a custard cream filling, sweetened cream or cream cheese.

A thin slice of lemon is a perfect flavor accent for many kinds of soup. Try it on condensed consommé bouillon or clam chowder.

FANCY DESSERT

An excellent way to combine ice cream and your favorite chocolate cookies is to make crumb-coated icecream balls.

To achieve the "professional" look of ice-cream balls without a metal scoop, use a small, round shaped teaspoon. Pack ice cream in a deep refrigerator tray. When frozen hard, rinse china cup in hot water and scoop out ice cream with the cup. Have ready a small bowl containing a generous amount of crumbled chocolate cookies or any other favorite variety of cookie.

Roll each ball of ice cream in crumbs until thickly coated. Then put in a shallow refrigerator tray in the freezing unit until you're ready to serve dessert.

Reception Will Fete Teachers And Parents

A reception in honor of the parents and teachers of Richmond School will be given by the room mothers on Thursday afternoon at the school auditorium between 2:30 and 4:30 o'clock. Invitations have also been extended to members of the administrative staff of the Salem School District and to members of the special education department.

Receiving the guests will be Mrs. Nick Schweigert, Mrs. Eldon Kinton and Mrs. George Birrell. Presiding at the coffee urns will be Mrs. Earl Bogardus, Mrs. Robert Laws, Mrs. Myrl Bush, Mrs. Wilbur Clark, Mrs. Harold Johnson and Mrs. Lawrence Osterburg.

The serving table will be covered with a lace cloth and centered with a bouquet of autumn flowers flanked by yellow tapers. Smaller tables will be arranged about the hall and will be centered with small bouquets.

Mrs. Ransom Carpenter is chairman of the decorating committee and Mrs. Wilbur Clark of the serving committee. Mrs. J. B. Swigart will pass the guest book.

Mrs. Gay Diehm will be hostess to members of the Merry Times Club for a dessert luncheon on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock at her home, 2980 Silverton Road.

"Milk Dictator?"

Look who's talking!

Opposition to milk reform comes from the Middleman Milk Barons whose profits are now protected under the law.

They are trying to confuse and alarm the voters with lies about "dictatorship" under the proposed milk reform bill.

The Milk Dictatorship that Oregon has had for 18 years is exactly what we are trying to get rid of. The Milk Controller now rules without restraint by issuing official orders under vague general provisions in the law.

An Oregon Journal editorial says: "Oregon is the only state that vests virtually unlimited power over a major food industry in a single administrative agency."

Our present Milk Administrator has all of these powers:

- He sets milk prices all the way from the farm to the consumer. No one may lawfully sell milk BELOW these prices.
- He determines which producers are allowed to supply all of our milk and how much each farmer can sell for Grade A prices.
- He decides who may enter the milk business and where. Under this device over 70% of our licensed milk distributors have been squeezed out in the past 10 years.
- He sets up regulations that prohibit any distributor from exceeding a maximum richness for standard milk.
- He is appointed by the State Board of Agriculture, which in turn is appointed by the Governor. He is completely beyond public control, and serves a partisan board.

Don't you think it's time for milk reform?

The milk reform bill that will be on your ballot November 4 will do away with dictatorship.

The new Administrator will have only limited authority; and his powers will be specifically stated in the law. He will be appointed directly by the Governor.

He will set milk prices at the farm level only. Middlemen will be subject to competition, like any other business.

He will NOT have power to say who shall enter the milk business, nor which farmers shall be favored.

Under milk reform, administrative orders will for the first time be subject to full review by the courts.

He will have no power to tamper with the richness of your milk, but he will have authority to enforce true labeling to show butterfat content.

Milk reform will get rid of the cost of a seven man board.

"If coffee could only taste as good as it smells"

... here's one that does!

Remember the heavenly aroma that hangs like a fragrant halo round your coffee pot bubbling on the fire? How would you like to taste that fragrance? Yes, taste it! Very well ... just wait till you taste the "aromatic flavor" of Nob Hill Coffee. You'll find Nob Hill at the Coffee Mill at Safeway, where the flip of a switch grinds it fresh for you. That's the final touch. That "aromatic flavor" is delicious enough ... but Nob Hill freshly ground is superb.
