Students Plan Halloween Parties

By JOAN MARIE MILLER
Statesman Correspondent

With Halloween nearing the fraternities and sororities are busy planning their annual Halloween party for the children of Eugene. Men's and women's houses join together and parties are given at the various individual houses on the campus. The children progress from one house to another competing at each in contests such as bobbing for apples, pin the tail on the donkey and others. After the children have competed at each house the winners gather in MacArthur Court for the final "play-offs." The grand winners of each event receive many prizes.

This is the second year for the party and its purpose is to keep the children off the streets. Last year, because of the party, vandalism was the lowest in the history of Eugene. Mary Sundet, Marjorie Becke, Ann Carson, Dorothy Pederson, Gail Lockhead, Bob Sogge and Norma Hamilton are working in their various groups to make this year's party successful.

Oregana year book sales are beginning to get underway on the campus. Salesmen have been elected and the one who sells the most orders for the books will receive a free yearbook. Mary Jo Brown, Fronie Bromley and Sharon Brown have been chosen as salesmen and are competing for the prize.

"Let's Sing America," a program for the benefit of elementary music pupils of the state, is being broadcast on the radio from Oregon tonight at their North Capital Street home ... covers will be placed for sixteen ... Honor guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darrah ... it will be a farewell party for Mrs. Darrah, who is soon leaving for South America to visit her daughter ... she plans to be away four months and will spend most of her time in Buenos Aires ...

Auxiliary Will Assist Family

The Military Order of the Purple Heart Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. E. Kenny on Wednesday night. Plans were made to assist the George Chaney family which was burned out in Dallas. Mrs. Willard Boehmer, 320 Magnolia Court, will take charge of donations of food, clothing, furniture, bedding etc. On Nov. 5 the auxiliary will visit the floor assigned to them at the Portland Veterans Hospital. This is under the chairmanship of Mrs. George Queseth, hospital chairman.

American Heiress Weds in London...

Virginia Fortune Ryan, 19-year-old American heiress, leaves London's St. Margaret's Church on Oct. 23, on the arm of her bridegroom, Lord Ogilvy, after Britain's plushiest wedding of the year. Child attendants follow the couple, who receive a bagpipe serenade. Lord Ogilvy is a former boy friend of Princess Margaret, who attended the wedding with the Queen Mother Elizabeth. Ideas for Foods From Old Files

Inspiration to Cook, or Writer

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Woman's Editor

Whenever we need inspiration for food stories or for home use, we go to that interesting old file of Mother's recipes. Many are just jottings on slips of paper, made when she was at a party or visiting friends and the talk turned to cooking. Other recipes are carefully written on cards and show signs of much use. Most bring memories of a very excellent cook who loved to try things and whose family found her cooking always interesting.

One of our very favorite party dessert recipes came from Mother's old file. She used to make it in a melon shaped mold and serve it on a large plate, to be cut at the table.

APRICOT MOLD

1 quart can apricots	1 cup water
2 bananas, sliced	Juice 1 lemon
2 tablespoons powdered sugar	1 cup nuts (ground)
1 cup sugar	1 pint cream

Boil sugar and water to thick syrup, cool. Add apricots, bananas, lemon. Put into pan and spread top with whipped cream into which has been mixed the sugar and nuts. Freeze without stirring. Serves 12 to 15.

Raisin chutney comes from old Better Homes and Gardens, and sounds like a good spread. Suggestion is to add salad dressing and serve on fruit salad.

RAISIN CHUTNEY

1 box seedless raisins, ground	4 tablespoons ginger
1 pound brown sugar	3 medium sized onions
4 tablespoons salt	2 1/2 pounds apples
4 tablespoons mustard	1 quart vinegar

Cut pared apples in thin slices and cook in vinegar until tender. Add remaining ingredients and boil 20 minutes. Stir to prevent scorching. Remove from stove, mash to make a sauce. Cool and seal in jars. Keeps indefinitely and is good with meats or mixed with mayonnaise for fish or salad.

Cranberries and apricots combined in a tart that goes like this:

APRICOT-CRANBERRY TARTS

Cook together until creamy and rather thick, 1 cup canned cranberry pulp and 1 cup canned apricot pulp, 4 teaspoons sugar and 1 teaspoon flour. Cool, put into previously baked tart shells and cool. This makes 10 to 12 tarts.

Mrs. Stortz Panhellenic President

Mrs. John William Stortz, Delta Gamma, will serve as president of the YWCA Panhellenic for the ensuing year. ... new officers, which are automatically elected by the rotation method, took over at the luncheon meeting of the group on Friday afternoon at the Senator Hotel.

Serving with Mrs. Stortz will be Mrs. Hollis W. Huntington, Gamma Phi Beta, vice-president; Mrs. Haris Lietz, Kappa Delta, secretary; and Mrs. Robert Siddoway, Pi Beta Phi, treasurer. Mrs. Chester Loe, Alpha Phi, has served as president the past year.

The group voted to again sponsor the Easter Lily sale in the spring. Mrs. Stortz announced two committee appointments; education, Mrs. C. R. Nelson, chairman, Mrs. Robert Nelson and Mrs. Lloyd Griffiths; luncheon, Mrs. Glenn Stevens and Mrs. Charles Marshall.

The next meeting of the group will be Nov. 21 at the Senator Hotel.

Mrs. Stanley Hammer was hostess to members of her bridge club Thursday night. Mrs. Charles Lovett of Portland, formerly of Salem, and Mrs. Donald Reinke were additional guests.

Hawaiian Party Honors Mrs. Allport

A delightful coffee this past week honored Mrs. Thomas Allport of Lihui, Kauai, at the Fairmount Hill home of Mrs. Ralph Johnson, with Mrs. Arnold Olson and Mrs. Oscar Lundahl assisting. The honored guest and the hostesses greeted the guests wearing paper leis of carnations, plumeria and tube roses, all native flowers of Hawaii. The leis were made by Mrs. Charles Vavrick, a former resident of Honolulu and a friend of the honored guest.

A forest green cloth, caught up at the corners with colorful leis and chrysanthemums, covered the table. The centerpiece was a ukelele entwined with leis and chrysanthemums and an arrangement of white chrysanthemums in a bowl of native wood. The coffee service and serving dishes were of copper. Other arrangements of chrysanthemums in copper bowls and native wooden bowls were placed on the buffet in the dining and living rooms. A lauhala hat, Hawaiian doll and Hawaiian music added to the island atmosphere.

Many friends of Mrs. Allport called and signed a clever guest book which later was presented to the honored guest. Pouring were Mrs. Mark Getzenander, Mrs. R. A. Horn and Mrs. Dow Lovell. Serving were Mrs. Lyle Ertsgaard, Mrs. Walter Mosher, Mrs. Melvin Johnson, Mrs. Milton Kanz, Mrs. Rex Ohmart, Mrs. Mark Gehlar, Mrs. Virgil Mason and Mrs. Charles Vavrick.

The Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Allport and their children, Mary, Stephen and Paul, will leave for Sunday via Pan American for their home in the Islands, after spending the summer on the mainland with relatives and friends. The Rev. Mr. Allport is pastor of the Lihui Lutheran Church, having served the church there for three years. The family will return in two years on another furlough.

Women Teachers Hear Speakers

Delta Kappa Gamma chapter, national honorary for women teachers, met with Mrs. Joe Brooks on McCoy Street Thursday night. A program was arranged by Miss Margaret Hlatt, Mrs. Donald Blake, and Mrs. Jess Peck. Mrs. Sylvia Forbes, who is an exchange teacher from England, gave a talk on administration of schools in a Willamette University student from Singapore, talked about schools in her home city.

A short business meeting and dessert supper followed. Hostesses were Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Marie Woods, Mrs. Clarence Thompson and Miss Verna Hogg.

A guest the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray O. Darland on Wyoming St. was Claude Ray, one of the Heidelberg Harmonies from Seattle.

Past Presidents Honored at Luncheon

Members of the Salem Woman's Club honored 19 of their past presidents at a luncheon in the clubhouse on Friday afternoon. The past presidents represented the period 1908-1952.

Past presidents honored, were Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Frank A. Elliott, Mrs. C. J. Hamilton, Mrs. David A. Wright, Mrs. Henry Hansen, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. C. C. Geer, Miss Enla McCully, Mrs. J. A. Brownson, Mrs. Glenn Paxson, Mrs. George H. Swift, Mrs. C. H. McCullah, Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. Estill L. Brunk, Mrs. Guy N. Hickok, Mrs. George W. Auing, Mrs. Howard N. Hunsaker and Mrs. Merle D. Travis.

Following the luncheon a business session followed. Delegates to the meeting of the Marion County Federation of Women's Club were named as follows: Mrs. Thomas W. Kelly, Mrs. Floyd D. Kibbe, Mrs. John W. Carr, Mrs. Guy N. Hickok, and Mrs. Carl Chambers, president of the club. New members of the club are Mrs. John Tyler Jr., Mrs. Ronald H. Upjohn, Mrs. L. C. Mitchell and Mrs. R. G. Boyd.

Music was presented by Miss Ethel Lou Stanek, cellist, and Miss Gladys Blue, pianist. Miss Stanek is a teacher of cello and theory at Willamette University. She is a graduate of Lawrence College, Appleton, Wisconsin and will soon receive her degree from Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y. Miss Blue, a Salem girl, graduated from Willamette last year and is now teaching piano there at the School of Music.

Dean Robert D. Cregg of Willamette University spoke on United Nations Day, giving a talk on the accomplishments and prospects of the United Nations.

Mrs. Frank Marshall was chairman of the luncheon committee.

BUY SILVERTON HOME

SILVERTON — Mrs. Aagot Paulson and her daughter, Miss Vera Paulson of New Haven, Conn., have bought the L. Kinblad home on North Church Street and will move here when they arrange for the care or sale of their two convalescent homes in New Haven. Extensive improvements of the Kinblad property will be made, the new owners report.

Couple to Live in Corvallis

MILL CITY — Friends have received announcements telling of the marriage of Miss La Vetta Rose Powelson and Vernon Duane McFadden in Corvallis on Oct. 18. The double ring ceremony was a nuptial mass at Saint Mary's Catholic Church.

For her wedding the bride wore a light gray suit with a coral hat. To her suit was pinned a white orchid.

Mrs. Thomas Gant (Marion McFadden), sister of the groom, from Bandon was matron of honor. She wore a royal blue suit with a white hat and pinned to her suit was an orchid. Brother of the bride, Howard Powelson of Stanfield, Oregon, was best man. Thomas Gant of Bando ushered.

The bride's mother wore a beige suit and green hat and Mrs. McFadden wore gray.

The young couple will be at home after Oct. 24 at 3261 Jackson Street, Corvallis. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Powelson of Stanfield and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McFadden of Stayton. All families lived here, where the bride and groom attended high school.

The new Mrs. McFadden went to Gates High School for her senior year, graduating with the class of 1951. The groom is a graduate of the class of 1948 and is now attending Oregon State College.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the Corvallis Hotel.

MILL CITY — Friends here have learned of the birth of a daughter to the Rev. and Mrs. Tom Courtney, Jr., in Kirilim, Indiana, on Oct. 10. The little girl, named Pamela Kay, has an older brother. The Rev. Mr. Courtney was pastor of the First Christian Church while here and his parents make their home in Salem.

On Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. How long should a widow wear deep mourning after the death of her husband?

A. It is seldom nowadays that deep mourning is worn. In fact, it is perfectly all right to wear a touch of white, such as collar and cuffs, with dark clothing. The usual time is a year.

Q. Should one select a wedding gift that is something only the bride can use, if one does not know the bridegroom?

A. Regardless of how well one knows either of the principals, the wedding gift should be one that can be used and enjoyed by both the bride and bridegroom.

Q. When a woman is wearing gloves, should she remove the right one before shaking hands?

A. No.
