

Sprague Points Out Editorial Satire to Reds

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Michigan Daily of Ann Arbor was being satirical and not war-mongering in an editorial last January, Charles A. Sprague of the United States told White Russia Saturday.

The question came up during debate on freedom of information in the U. N. Social Welfare Committee. White Russia had complained the newspaper last Jan. 15 printed an editorial the Communist State considered war-mongering. White Russia also said the newspaper erred in placing a submarine base at the inland city of Minsk.

Wool Growers Elect Short

PORTLAND (AP)—J. F. Short of Redmond Friday was elected a director of the Pacific Wool Growers Association.

He will fill a vacancy resulting from the death of C. E. Grell, of Portland and Ridgefield, Wash. The board also named Edwin L. Adams, Portland, as secretary-treasurer for the remainder of the year.

R. A. Ward, general manager, reported that the association warehouse here has received some 200,000 pounds more wool this year than at the same time in 1951. That represents a gain of 15 per cent, he said.

Reds Blast ROKs On Sniper Ridge

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Chinese Reds struck again Sunday morning at South Koreans clinging desperately to Pinpoint Hill on top of Sniper Ridge in Central Korea.

Other Republic of Korea troops held to positions within 25 yards of the crest of Triangle Hill, two miles west of Sniper Ridge. The ROKs were sniped off the top of Triangle Friday.

SNOW AT TIMBERLINE

PORTLAND (AP)—Four inches of new snow fell overnight at Timberline Lodge, the Weather Bureau reported Saturday. That was the first substantial fall of the season.

Secretaries Favor Oregon Exam Center

A resolution seeking a place in Oregon to give "Certified Professional Secretary" examinations to office secretaries was approved by the National Secretaries Association regional convention in Salem Saturday.

The 76 delegates from northwestern states opened their business sessions Saturday morning in the Senator Hotel. They will conclude the meet early this afternoon.

Delegates agreed to ask their national Certified Public Secretary Institute to establish an examination center in Oregon—probably at the University of Oregon. The examinations are given to qualify secretaries as a means of elevating their secretarial positions.

It was also announced at the convention that Evelyn Schroeder of Medford has been appointed a member of the CPC group.

Gov. Douglas McKay and City Councilman Robert White, acting for Mayor Alfred W. Loucks, addressed the opening session Saturday morning.

Panel discussions on membership, and the 1953 NSA convention in Seattle, Wash., followed. Presiding at the convention is Miss Margaret Heesemann, northwest regional vice-president from Laraine, Wyo. Host chapter is Salem's Cascade Chapter.

Included in the program Saturday night at the Senator Hotel was an address by W. W. Bartlett, Director, state board of aeronautics. Entertainment at the program was provided by George Moorhead, who gave a reading, and students of the Chemawa Indian School who did a hoop dance.

Local committee chairmen include Miss Jean Brinacombe, convention chairman; Miss Lois R. Manning, co-chairman; Miss E. Irene Allen, finance and transportation; Mrs. Ray Pinson, decorations; Mrs. Cameron Mull, registration; Mrs. W. W. DeVall, publicity; Helen Reutgers, hotel and reservations, and Mrs. J. B. Hansen, local president, hospitality.

Gunmen Rob Tangent Service Station Man

Statesman News Service TANGENT — State police reported late Saturday night that John Edelman, proprietor of a service station at Tangent, was held up and robbed of $50 by two gunmen. Edelman told police the two tore his phone off the wall before leaving in the dense night fog.

Neuner Says Newbry Sale Of Pears Legal

Sale of pears, grown on orchards belonging to Secretary of State Earl T. Newbry, to the penitentiary was ruled legal Friday by Attorney General George Neuner.

Neuner said he saw no violation of law in the transaction which occurred in 1949, 1950 and 1951 and resulted in charges by the Oregon Journal that Newbry had violated a statute. The statute referred to forbids sale to the state of supplies or services by a member of the board of control.

The pears actually were sold to the state by Ralph Cook, Medford pear grower, who purchased pears from Newbry and other growers as well as bird baths and grave ornaments. One ornament was reported broken and some turf disturbed. Two water hydrants were turned on in the city, a bicycle thrown into the mill stream and a good many windows soaped, but no other serious damage by vandals plagued police.

The opinion from the attorney general was issued at the request of State Senator H. Hilton, Portland attorney.

Newbry, a Republican, is a candidate for re-election and is opposed by Mrs. Edith S. Green, Democrat.

Local committee chairmen include Miss Jean Brinacombe, convention chairman; Miss Lois R. Manning, co-chairman; Miss E. Irene Allen, finance and transportation; Mrs. Ray Pinson, decorations; Mrs. Cameron Mull, registration; Mrs. W. W. DeVall, publicity; Helen Reutgers, hotel and reservations, and Mrs. J. B. Hansen, local president, hospitality.

Boys Disturb Tombstones, Set Fire to House

Five Salem teen-agers, who apparently didn't get their fill of pranks Halloween night, admitted setting fire to a home south of town Saturday afternoon, Marion County sheriff's office reported.

The boys, between the ages of 12 and 16 years, had already admitted vandalism at Belcrest Memorial Cemetery on Halloween and had been cited to appear in juvenile court Monday at 3 p.m. They were apprehended Saturday morning by a sheriff's deputy.

Then Saturday afternoon Sheriff Denver Young was called to investigate a fire in an empty home at 385 Cunningham Lane, south of Salem in the Liberty district. Upon arrival Sheriff Young talked to five boys who were at the scene and he said they readily admitted setting the fire "for a lark." They proved to be the same five involved in the vandalism Friday night.

Most serious of listed vandalism after the witching hour Halloween night, was incurred at "Baby Land" in the Belcrest Cemetery. Benches had been tipped over as well as bird baths and grave ornaments. One ornament was reported broken and some turf disturbed. Two water hydrants were turned on in the city, a bicycle thrown into the mill stream and a good many windows soaped, but no other serious damage by vandals plagued police.

Morse Returns $1,200 Election Contribution

EUGENE (AP)—Sen. Wayne Morse (R-Ore.) has returned a $1,200 campaign contribution. Lumberman George Owen said here Saturday.

Owen had given Morse the money some time ago to pay for printing expenses. After the senator booted the Republican Party Owen bitterly described himself as a "sucker."

"I feel now that I haven't been played for a sucker," Owen said after Morse returned the money. "I was never more surprised or more pleased over receiving money."

Morse returned the money with a letter that said in part: "In view of your obvious regret . . . I am enclosing a check for $1,200 . . . In politics I have come to learn that true friends are those who stand with you even when they believe you to be wrong on some issues. I am sorry that your friendship for me was not as deep as you caused me to believe. With best wishes always . . ."

EX-SALEM DENTIST DIES Dr. Vinton Scott, prominent Salem dentist who moved to Grants Pass some years ago, died at his home Saturday evening, local friends reported. Dr. Scott was said to have been in ill health for several years.

Streets Wear Coat of Feathers

CAIRO, Mo. (AP)—Halloween celebrators started the residents of this little town with an unusual prank.

Four streets were resurfaced Friday with asphalt. Saturday morning all of the sticky, new surface was covered with white feathers—to a depth of two inches in some places.

Where did that many feathers come from? There's no public answer yet. Most of the feathers still were on the streets late Saturday.

Truman Ends Campaign on 'Victory' Note

ST. LOUIS (AP)—President Truman wound up the most strenuous campaign of his career Saturday night with a forecast of victory for Adlai E. Stevenson—and a warning of national disaster if Dwight D. Eisenhower is elected instead.

"We would have the ultimate irony of a general who stood for the defense of the free world when he was in uniform, presiding over the liquidation of our foreign policy," the President declared.

Truman's final speech of the 1952 campaign was prepared for delivery in the same Missouri city where he ended his own 1948 fight for his election to the White House. "I finished my 1948 campaign in St. Louis and we won," Truman said. "We're going to win again this time."

Wiring Blamed For 18 Deaths, Missouri Fire

HILLSBORO, Mo. (AP)—A coroner's jury Saturday heard volunteer firemen testify that they believed defective wiring was the cause of a fire which swept through a three-story nursing home here Friday night, snuffing out the lives of 18 aged persons.

Jefferson County Coroner John Long said the firemen testified the fire was believed to have started from wiring in a linen closet on the first floor of the home.

In Jefferson City, the Missouri

Association of Licensed Nursing Homes adopted a resolution urging legislation for a stricter inspection system of nursing homes. At least 36 residents of the home were reported injured in the blaze which spread quickly up stairways and along corridors as attendants worked to get the 85 residents to safety.

Death Claims Woodburn Polio Victim

WOODBURN — Death claimed polio-stricken Clarence Enos, 31, Woodburn, late Friday night at a Salem hospital where he had been confined for a month.

Enos was the first infantile paralysis victim to die in Marion County this year, reported Dr. W. J. Stone, county health officer. Hospital attendants said his illness was complicated by pneumonia.

The deceased, who leaves a widow and two small children, had been in an iron lung since he was stricken. His arms and legs were seriously affected by the disease.

Born at Adrian on May 29, 1921, he came to Woodburn in 1937, graduated from Woodburn High School and engaged in the contracting business with his father.

He was a first lieutenant in Woodburn's National Guard Company and a member of the Methodist Church, Masonic Lodge and Woodburn Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Surviving are his wife, Marjorie, daughters, Cheryl Jo and Marla Lynne, parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Enos, and a sister, Lois Gaviola, all of Woodburn; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Rose, Payette, Idaho.

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Monday at Ringo Chapel, National Guard Chaplain Lucius Bolton will officiate. Masonic and military honors will follow at Belle Passi Cemetery.

Demos Reveal Finances, Hurl GOP Challenge

PORTLAND (AP)—The Oregon Democratic Party Saturday made public a financial report of its campaign expenditures and receipts and challenged the Republican Party to do the same.

But Robert A. Elliott, Medford, Republican state chairman, apparently refused the challenge. He said his party would file its report with the secretary of state sometime before Nov. 19 as required by law.

Democratic State Chairman Howard Morgan reported his party had received $13,106 and spent $12,362 in the period from April 12 to Oct. 30.

Deficits were reported by candidates seeking the three state offices: Mrs. Edith Green, Portland, candidate for secretary of state, had contributions of $2211 and expenses of $3,199.

Robert Y. Thornton, Tillamook, candidate for attorney general, contributions of $4013 and expenses of $4690.

Francis Lambert, Portland, candidate for treasurer, contributions of $1554 and expenses of $2141.
