

Around Town...

By JERRY NGLIEN

NAVY JOY! Expected in the capital city today are Lt. and Mrs. Rodney Vandeneys and son, Peter, who have been making their home in La Jolla, Calif., where the navy officer has been stationed. This is their first time home in nearly a year and while here will be visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vandeneys. Coming up from Eugene to join the family will be Mr. and Mrs. Ted E. Reed. The latter is a sister of the navy lieutenant. The Vandeneys are en route to Seattle, where he will be stationed.

In Salem for a week is Ensign Douglas Stearns, who is en route to Oakland for navy duty. He has been attending a navy supply officers school at Bayonne, N. J., and will be in Oakland a month prior to leaving for duty at Kwajalein on the Marshall Islands. His wife, the former Diane Proctor, a teacher at Salem High School, expects to join her husband in the spring.

Visiting in Salem and Portland are Captain and Mrs. J. S. Risley Jr. and children, Jonna, Jennifer, Jackie and Tamara, of Oceanside, Calif. While here they were guests of Mrs. Wheeler, formerly of Portland, who now makes her home at the Lee Apartment, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Arbuckle. They are also visiting in Portland with relatives and friends during their leave. Captain Risley is stationed at Camp Pendleton with the marines.

TO BE MARRIED Announcement is being made of the forthcoming marriage of Mrs. Denise Murray of Monmouth, formerly of Salem, to George Redden of Bend. The news was told Thursday night at a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rich on North Cottage Street.

Bidden were members of the choir of the First Congregational Church of which Mrs. Murray is director. The wedding will be an event of Dec. 24 at the First Congregational Church at 4 o'clock. The bride-to-be is on the music faculty at the Oregon College of Education and formerly was on the music school faculty at Willamette University. Mr. Redden is in business in Albany and the couple will make their home in Monmouth.

AT RANDOM Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ullakko have as their guests for the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Orland Chelidlin of Nyssa. They have come for the Willamette University Homecoming festivities. Their daughter, Donna, is a junior at Willamette.

Return in time for the Homecoming weekend. Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, who have been in the east and south, arrived in the capital Wednesday from a month's trip. Dr. Smith attended three conferences while in the east and his wife visited in Athens, Georgia with their son-in-law and daughter. The Rev. and Mrs. George W. Gunn, and their five months old son, George Jr., who was christened during his grandmother's visit.

Visiting in Drain for several weeks is Mrs. Charles S. McKinnin, who is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Whipple.

Leaving Sunday for a week's sojourn in Reno at the Mapes Hotel will be Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Woody.

Busy with her studies at San Jose State College this winter is Marion Sparks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. Sparks. She is studying for her master's degree in drama. This weekend Marion is appearing in her first play on the campus, "The Importance of Being Earnest." She will be home for the Christmas holidays.

A little girl, Randa Lee, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Vern E. Haugen on Nov. 4 at Salem Memorial Hospital. She tipped the scales at seven pounds, five ounces. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmer A. Haugen.

Entertaining at her bridge club Wednesday night was Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst. Mrs. Woodson Bennett was an additional guest. Mrs. Donald Sommer was hostess to her club at bridge and supper Wednesday night. Guests were Mrs. George C. Alexander and Miss Mariann Croisan. Mrs. Rollin Haag invited her club to an evening of cards at her country place Wednesday night. Additional guests were Mrs. Richard Gahldorf and Mrs. Harold Schick.

Art Association Benefit Sale Two days are left of the Salem Art Association's benefit sale being held at 220 North Liberty Street, and many wanted items of furniture, antiques art objects, cut glass, china, silverware are offered, according to Mrs. Walter Kirk, president of the association. A large number of shoppers were awaiting the opening of the sale on Thursday morning, and a gratifying turn-out has been experienced through the first day.

Purpose of this benefit sale, scheduled during American Art Week, is to raise funds to support the Salem Art Association's program for encouraging the appreciation of art and participation in art activities of the Salem area. An important aim of the association's program is the establishment of an art museum for the City of Salem. Activities committee chairman of the Salem Art Association, Mrs. William Anderson, reports that a large group of workers are assisting Mrs. James Walton and Mrs. Breyman Boise, co-chairmen of the benefit sale. Workers on the benefit sale committee include Mesdames Stewart Johnson, James Walton, Chandler Brown, James Payne, Donald McCargar, Merrill Ohling, George Ailing, John Heitzel, Clifford Taylor, Ida Nestell, Chester Cox and F. W. Poorman.
