Chapel Scene Of Nuptials Saturday

The chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the setting for a simple, but impressive wedding ceremony Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Mrs. Amelia Jessup, Portland, daughter of Mrs. Rose W. Babcock, Silverton, became the bride of Paul Jaquet, Silverton.

The Rev. George H. Swift officiated at the nuptials and the bride's son, William Jessup, and the bride's aunt, Mrs. William F. Krenz, Silverton, were the soloists and Mrs. Arthur Dahl, also of Silverton, was the accompanist.

Vern Shay gave his sister-in-law in marriage. For her wedding she chose a grey tulle afternoon dress fashioned with tucked skirt and winter white beaded hat. She wore long, white gloves and her flowers were white orchids.

The couple was unattended. Robert Darrah, Silverton, longtime friend of the couple, was the usher.

A reception for the immediate family followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother on State Street. Mrs. Vern Shay cut the cake and Mrs. Louis Schacht poured. Assisting were the groom's two daughters, Mrs. Robert Lierman, Silverton and Mrs. Fred Balzer, Dallas, and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Donald Jaquet, Silverton.

After an extended honeymoon trip to California and other points in the South the couple will be at home on the groom's farm in the Waldo Hills district.

To Plan Charity Ball

Spmsters will be entertained Monday night at the Harland G. Brock's Morningside home on Bluff Avenue with Mrs. Ernest Miller, Mrs. John Slanchik and Miss Antoinette Kuzmanich as hostesses. Mrs. John Mauding will preside at the 8 o'clock business session at which plans will be made for the group's annual Christmas Charity Ball on Dec. 20 at the Marion Hotel.

Mrs. E. H. Kennedy will open her Morningside home to members of St. Anne's Guild of St. Paul's Episcopal Church Monday afternoon at 1:30 p. m. Mrs. Roberts Sears is chairman of the hostess committee, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Power, Mrs. Robert M. Fischer Jr. and Mrs. William H. Burghardt.
