

Hood River Man to Head Horticulturists

CORVALLIS (P)—C. King Benton Jr., Hood River, was named president of the Oregon Horticultural Society here Friday, succeeding Thomas Harper of Junction City.

Other officers include David Lowry, Medford, first vice president; Harold Bushe, Boring, second vice president; Gordon Walker, Independence, third vice president; and C. O. Rawlings, OSC extension horticultural specialist, secretary-treasurer.

Trustees include Harper; Earl Moore, Hood River; Ward Spatz, Medford; Ross Clark, Salem, and Glenn Shaeffer, Boring.

Charles H. Mahoney of the National Canners Association, Washington, D. C., addressed the Oregon fruit and vegetable growers. He said claims that off-flavor in fruits and vegetables has resulted from use of spraying chemicals in insect and plant disease control have been over-emphasized.

He warned, though, against use of insecticides that have not been tested for off-flavor effects on food.

The society approved setting up a nine-member scholarship and research committee.

Playful Boys Tire Doctor

NEW ALBANY, Ind. (P)—Floyd G. Riddle could save time and money by taking his doctor in as a free boarder.

Several hours after a telephone was installed in the Riddle suburban home, the oldest of his three boys threw a stick which hit the youngest brother in the eye.

The doctor who treated the youngest Riddle had just enough time to return to the city when the youngest boy rammed a stick in the oldest boy's ear.

The doctor returned and treated the ear. Soon after going back to his office he had to return to the Riddle home to treat the infant sister of the three boys.

The third boy, who had stayed out of trouble so far, had put an apple in a sock and gave it a big heave. It hit the sister on the head.

Petroleum is made entirely of hydrogen and carbon.

3 People Hurt In 3 Saturday Car Wrecks

Three separate auto accidents, one Saturday evening and two earlier in the morning, resulted in injury and hospitalization of three occupants.

Hospitalized Saturday night was Mrs. Pearl A. Schemp, 1180 N. 18th, who was riding with her husband, Ernest N. Schemp, when their auto collided with that driven by Raymond Lester Fullington 550 N. Water St. The accident occurred about 15 miles north of Salem as both cars were driving toward Portland. State police reported that Fullington's auto had motor trouble and was being pushed by another car when the rear-end collision occurred.

Mrs. Schemp was held at Salem Memorial Hospital for observation. She suffered severe lacerations. Mr. Schemp was released after examination.

Most seriously injured Saturday from an automobile accident was Roy Parsons, 445 Missouri St., who was a passenger in a car driven by Walter V. Engberg, Portland, when that auto struck two parked cars in the 2800 block of Portland Road early Saturday morning. Parsons suffered several fractured ribs and vertebrae. His condition was considered fair by Salem General Hospital authorities Saturday night.

Engberg and three passengers reported to city police that the accident occurred when an unidentified auto on the inside lane turned into the side of the Engberg car and forced him to strike the two parked cars. The two parked cars reportedly belong to Darrel L. Knittle, 105 River St., and John Warren, Sheridan.

In the second accident early Thursday morning, B. I. Gronlund, 335 N. 18th St., suffered a cut above the right eye while riding with Baker Bryon Berry, Dallas. He was hurt when the Berry auto struck the parked car of Clifford W. Garnett at 1211 S. Liberty St. City police reports indicate the accident occurred when Berry had passed another car and came suddenly upon the parked car, too late to stop. Gronlund was released after treatment by Salem first aid and examination by hospital authorities.

Wreck Near Madras Fatal

MADRAS (P)—Mrs. John Lanz of Bend was killed early Saturday in a car crash two miles south of here.

She was returning home from Portland with her husband and their two sons, Richard, 8, and Fred, 6. Lanz and the boys escaped serious injury.

Ron Starnes, 17, Culver, driver of the car which crashed with the Lanz auto, was treated at a Bend hospital. His condition was not serious.

The Lanz family moved to Bend from Portland last month. Lanz is on the staff of the Bureau of Land Management.
