Penn, Utah Take Titles As Season Nears Finish

NEW YORK (AP)—Pennsylvania clinched the Ivy League crown and Utah the Skyline Conference championship Thursday to highlight the holiday college football schedule.

Penn., by vanquishing Cornell 14-7 in their traditional encounter, broke Princeton's two-year hold on Ivy League honors. The Red and Blue who captured their tenth title, finished the season with a 4-0 record in league competition.

Joe Varaitis sparked Penn to a first period touchdown. The junior fullback carried the ball four times from Cornell's 12, finally bolting across from the one-foot line.

Penn countered again in the third period, a Glenn Adams to John Lavin six yard pass climaxing an 85 yard drive. Cornell threatened throughout but only could manage a single fourth quarter touchdown.

Utah's 20-0 triumph over Utah State gave them a perfect 5-0 slate in Skyline play this year. A Utah defeat would have left them in a tie with New Mexico which had won four out of five games.

In another traditional tilt, Texas ran roughshod over Texas A & M 33-12. Billy Quinn scored two touchdowns, his 12th and 13th of the season, to pace the Longhorns' attack.

Texas tallied once in each of the first three periods and added another tally plus a field goal and a safety in the final quarter. The victory gave the Longhorns, who will meet Tennessee in the Cotton Bowl New Year's Day, a clean sweep in Southwest Conference competition. They already had clinched league laurels by defeating TCU two weeks ago.

In the first of the post-season bowl games, East Tennessee State crushed Emory and Henry 34-16 in the Burley Bowl.

Colgate, with Bob Schirmer and Dick Lalla, leading the way, outscored Brown 33-27. Schirmer scampered 88 yards to pay dirt and Lalla tossed a 21 yard touchdown aerial in the last five minutes to wrap up the game.

In other games, Cincinnati whipped Miami 34-9, Virginia Tech defeated VMI 26-7, Santa Clara turned back San Jose 15-7 and Wyoming upset Denver 21-14.

CENTRALIA WINNER

CENTRALIA, Wash. (AP)—Centralia High School gridder lipped Chehalis, 20-14, in their annual Thanksgiving Day football game Thursday. Feature of the tilt was an 85-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Bob Carda of Chehalis.

Bearcats Face Hawaiian '11'

Sadao Matsukawa, who has accounted for close to 1,300 yards with his arm this season.

Willamette has another ace in its deck in little Chuck Lewis, sophomore speedster from Seaside and rated one of the Northwest Conference's best breakaway backs this season. Bobby Zoelch and Paul Jewell also will see duty in the WU starting offensive backfield unit.

The Rainbows have some ball carrying threats of their own in Walt Kato, Dick Mendez and Al Franco.

WU Defensive Tackle Dave Anderson remains a question mark for Friday night because of an ankle sprain sustained in Monday's drills. Lou Lofland, freshman halfback who has been out of the last two games because of a foot injury, may see some action against Hawaii.

Sam Hains, another Honolulu product, will act as co-captains for Willamette in the contest that is expected to fill the 25,000 seat stadium to near capacity.

In addition to the backfield of Holt, Lewis, Zoelch and Jewell, Ogdahl's starters will include Dean Benson and Bob Platenberg at the ends, Haina and Bob Miller at tackles, Bob Coyle and Rube Menashe at guards and Ken Cooper at center.

Coach Vasconcellos of the Rainbows will go offensively with Matsukawa, Kato, Mendez and Franco in his backfield and the Hawaii line will include Dave Hanks and Ellsworth Bush at the flanks, Henry Ariyoshi and Ed Malapik at the tackles, Walt Hozome and Eric Watanabe at guards and Toma in the snapper-back slot.

The Friday night contest will be aired over KOCO by direct wire, starting at 8:15, Salem time. Gene Good is slated for sideline chores.

Dallas Takes Win in Upset

AKRON, O. (AP)—The orphaned Dallas Texans, refusing to quit even after dropping an 18-point lead, drove 75 yards to the deciding touchdown Thursday and upset the favored Chicago Bears, 27-23.

Frank Tripucka, who completed 16 of 26 passes, plunged over from one yard out 34 seconds before the final gun with the touchdowns that produced the Texans' first victory in 10 starts.

The enraged Bears struck for three touchdowns in the final quarter for a three-point lead before that last march by the orphans.

Tripucka completed six aerials in the deciding drive, the last to Tom Keane good for 15 yards to the two.

Uke's Moomaw Is Top Choice

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Linebacker Donn Moomaw of UCLA was regarded as a football player of worth to match his huge stature, judging by the support he got in making the 1952 Associated Press All-Pacific Coast Conference team announced Thursday.

The 6-foot-4, 222-pounder was a unanimous choice for the defensive platoon of the AP teams, selected with the cooperation of the coaches of the nine conference schools. Jim Searls was the only player to receive such acclaim.

There were others who came close to this honor, however, including would-be champion Jimmie Sears of the champion Trojans of Southern California. He was almost a unanimous choice for the safety man on the defensive unit, and received several votes for a place on the offensive team backfield.

Heavy support also went to Quarterback Don Heinrich of Washington, Paul Cameron of UCLA and to the other two stars named on the All-PCC offensive backfield—Johnny Olaszewski of California and Sam Baker of Oregon State.

Two other USC players, defensive Guard Elmer Willhoite and offensive Center Lou Welsh, also barely missed the unanimous distinction.

For perhaps the first time in the history of the AP selections, two teams—UCLA and USC, the leaders in the conference—completely dominated the 11 positions on the defensive platoon.

Support given the Trojans and Bruins by the rival coaches in the loop bore out the convictions of coaches Red Sanders of UCLA and Jess Hill of USC. They said they had two finest defensive teams in the nation.

The offensive line named ran like this: Ends—George Black, Washington, and Ernie Stockert, UCLA; tackles—Jim Vic, Stanford, and Lou Yourkowski, Washington; guards—Ed Flynn, UCLA, and Len Lou Welsh, USC.

Here's the defensive platoon: Ends—Bob Hooks, USC, and Myron Berliner, UCLA; tackles—Bob van Doren, USC, and Charles (Chuck) Doud, UCLA; guards—Elmer Willhoite, USC, and Jim Salisbury, UCLA; linebackers—Donn Moomaw, UCLA, and George Timberlake, USC; backs—Linton Crow, USC, and Bill Stitts, UCLA, and safety—Jim Searls, USC.

Ross-Pedersen Scrap Is Next

The long-awaited finish scrap involving Tony Ross and Eric Pedersen (The Arrogant Pedersen) will highlight Matchmaker Elton Owen's Army wrestling card next Tuesday night, if the maestro can get the two gladiators signed this week. Owen said Thursday, after Ross had again reminded him that he was waiting to again tangle with the Los Angeles blond, that he wants the brawl for the coming Tuesday.

Ross and Pedersen have met here on two occasions. In the first battle the muscular Eric cut Ross up severely. Ross' wounds were so bad that medics refused to allow him to continue that night. A rematch was made and Ross vowed he'd get even. He did. Ross cut up Pedersen in the second scrap, evening the score.

Challenges then flew thick and fast and an "anything goes" match was made between the two. There was to have been no time limit and no referee for that one. It was to have been a finish scrap. But Pedersen showed up for it with a bad knee and doctors would not allow him to go on. Thus it was postponed.

Owen will have full particulars on the match, and also the other Tuesday squabbles listed up later this week.
