

Ike Reviewed All Phases of Orient Strategy

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Maj. Gen. William C. Chase, who spent three days with President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower in Korea, said Monday the entire strategic situation in the Far East was reviewed and discussed during Eisenhower's visit.

Chase, head of the U.S. Military Assistance Advisory Group (MAAG), told his first news conference since returning to Taipei Sunday from Korea.

"Eisenhower was most eager to hear all about the present situation of Free China here on Formosa. The problem of Communist China also was discussed in great detail."

Chase said Eisenhower neglected no opportunity to learn all he could about Far East problems. Asked whether the general appeared well-informed on the situation, Chase said:

"I frankly think that he learned more about the situation in Formosa than he'd heard before—that's why I was sent for."

Chase told reporters neither Eisenhower nor his party disclosed any future plans pertaining to the Far East during their talks. Chase said he conferred with the general "five or six times."

Upon returning here Sunday, Chase immediately went into conference with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

Stabbed Fatally At P-TA Dance

THE DALLES (AP) — Bert Allen, 39, of The Dalles, was fatally stabbed at a PTA dance at Lyle, Wash., Saturday night, and a few hours later Lawrence Benton Powell, accused of the slaying, was arrested.

Powell, 28, also of The Dalles, signed a statement saying he had used a pocket knife to protect himself against Allen, Rex Thornton, chief of police at The Dalles, said.

Allen died from seven knife wounds in the chest, Sheriff E. C. Kaiser of Goldendale, Wash., reported.

The stabbing occurred outside the Lyle school gymnasium. Powell had taken Allen's ex-wife to a dance there. The Allens were divorced three days ago.

Secret Papers Said Involved In Drunk Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Department officials said Sunday they were looking into reports that a veteran foreign service officer was carrying secret papers when he and his wife were arrested on intoxication charges early Saturday morning.

The two were taken into custody after the automobile in which they were riding collided with a telephone pole in adjacent Arlington County, Va. They were Foy David Kohler, 44, a member of the State Department's policy planning staff, and his wife, Mrs. Phyllis Kohler, 42.

Kohler, a former head of the department's Voice of America, was carrying a briefcase and Police Pvt. Bernard Lunsford quoted him as saying it contained secret material.

Police notified the State Department and three agents arrived shortly afterward to take charge of the briefcase. Department aids declined to discuss the matter Sunday other than to say it was being looked into.

Kohler, who has held posts at Bucharest, Athens, Cairo, London and elsewhere, forfeited $8.75 on a charge of public intoxication. His wife was released in $500 bond pending a hearing Monday on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Kohler's collateral was forfeited at the Arlington police station. Mrs. Kohler's bond was posted there pending an appearance in Arlington County court.

Albert Agricultural College, said after a series of tests that the drug adds 10 per cent more weight to turkeys over a 12-week period.

Young Swimmer Killed by Shark In Monterey Bay

PACIFIC GROVE, Calif. (AP) — A 17-year-old boy was attacked and killed by a huge shark Sunday while swimming only 50 feet from shore in Monterey bay.

One of young Berry Wilson's legs was nearly severed. The other badly mangled. Large pieces of flesh were bitten away.

A group of marine biologists summoned from the nearby Hopkins Marine Laboratory of Stanford University said the wounds were made by shark's teeth. Witnesses said the shark was at least 15 feet long.

Wilson and a friend, Brookner W. Brady Jr., 15, were swimming alone when the shark attacked. Brady and four men swam to Wilson, and Brady reported a huge form under water darted away as they approached. Wilson was dead when he was brought ashore.

Sen. Morse Continues to Berate Ike

PORTLAND (AP) — Sen. Wayne Morse, who arrived back in Oregon Sunday to explain his bolt from the Republican Party, continued his bitter criticism of President-elect Dwight Eisenhower.

The Oregon senator, who has scheduled eight speeches this week, said he approved two cabinet appointments which Eisenhower has made—Sinclair Weeks as secretary of commerce and Martin P. Durkin as secretary of labor.

Asked whether these two appointments didn't restore his former confidence in Eisenhower's judgment, Morse said:

"He can't make mistakes all the time."

But Morse said he would vote to confirm all the cabinet appointments; "Generally speaking, the president-elect is entitled to have

This includes John Foster Dulles, secretary of state-designate who Morse said was "the leading capitalist of America."
Morse said he expected he would lose his seats in the Armed Services and Labor Committees of Congress. He also conceded he has lost support in Oregon.
But he added that he expects to run for re-election in 1956 as an independent and expects to "they get the facts," he said. Should he lose, though, Morse said he will make his home in Oregon.
