

Face Millers in Big Six League Opener

These five Salem High Vikings will see plenty of action at the Vik Villa tonight when Coach Harold Hauk's crew opens Big Six League play with the undefeated Springfield Millers at 8:15 o'clock. From left to right are 5-7 Guard Herb Triplett, 5-10 Guard Jim Knapp, 6-5 Center Jack Bishop, 6-4 Forward Dave Johnson and 5-8 Guard Gordy Domogalla.

Chase After Money Now . . .

Moore Plans to Be Busy As Lighthweight Champion

ST. LOUIS — Archie Moore, the newly-crowned light heavyweight champion, doesn't intend to waste too much time cashing in on the title he won Wednesday from Joey Maxim.

The 36-year-old veteran of 16 years of pro battling said Thursday he will rest about a month and then start working on the busy campaign manager Charley Johnston is mapping out for him.

"He's chased the title for eight years," said Johnston. "Now he'll chase the money."

Moore's next fight may be a non-title affair in St. Louis Feb. 18 with the winner of the Danny Nardicio-Jake La Motta clash, scheduled for Miami Dec. 31.

Injury Fails To Hurt Vols

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Tennessee's Gen. Bob Neyland was asked what effect, if any, the loss of fullback Andy Kozar would have on the Vols against Texas in the Cotton Bowl football game.

"We won't miss Kozar too much," Neyland told an Atlanta sports writer. "Kozar was a great football player at times, but he also had his bad days."

"We still have Ray Byrd at fullback. Byrd is not as powerful as Kozar, but he is faster and to my mind a better blocker. I do not feel that we will be playing Texas in a weakened status because Kozar is hurt."

Kozar, Tennessee's leading scorer and ground gainer for the season, is recuperating from a pelvis injury suffered in mid-November. Trainer Mickey O'Brien says it is doubtful Kozar will be ready to play against Texas.

League Opener In Villa Gym

The Salem Vikings open their Big Six League basketball campaign tonight at the Vik Villa, but the chore doesn't appear to be an easy one. Coach Harold Hauk's Villa crew, which has yet to win in three tries, losing to Roosevelt, Hillsboro and Jefferson, takes' on the Springfield Millers at 8:15 o'clock. Springfield has one of its best teams in recent years.

Coach Stan Williamson's visitors now reside atop the league standings with three victories and no losses. The Millers downed Bend twice and topped strong Albany at get there.

Consequently things look to be ruffled for the Haukmen in their first league splash.

Pentty of Talent
 Williamson has a host of talented lettermen on hand, including 6-5 Jack Heacock, 6-2 Bill Pakulak, 5-11 Dewey Leavitt, 5-10 Earl Coffelt, and 5-8 Floyd Burright, Vaughn Willoughby and Jack Cozad. His reserve strength is solid as well as big.

Salem will be able to match the 6-5 Heacock height with Center Jack Bishop's 6-5, and will have 6-4 Dave Johnson in the thick of things also. Other Vikings standing by for action are 5-10 Jim Knapp, 5-7 Herb Triplett, 5-11 Larry Springer, 5-8 Gordon Domogalla, 6-2 Harry Burke, 5-9 Ed Castillo, 5-11 Jack Cobb, 6-1 Wayne Ericksen, 6-3 Bob Miller, 5-10 Tom Pickens and 5-9 Jim Rice.

Jayvee teams open prelim play at 6:45 o'clock. The varsity event gets under way at 8:15.

Ryan Resigns As Tribe Boss

CLEVELAND — Ellis W. Ryan resigned as president of the Cleveland Indians late Thursday and his supporters in the club's front office dispute agreed to sell nearly all their stock holdings. Myron H. Wilson was elected to succeed Ryan.

The announcement said the Ryan faction had agreed to sell approximately 1,300 shares of their stock to the opposing group.

Hoop Parties At Willamette And Molalla Hi

It's jamboree time for members of both the Capitol and Willamette Valley Leagues tonight, with both cage parties slated to start at 7:30 o'clock.

Willamette University will be the scene of the Capitol League sortie involving Sacred Heart Academy, Salem Academy, Stayton, Cascade Union and Philomath, the five circuit members.

Molalla High School will again play host for the eight-team WVL spree which is to offer four abbreviated games featuring Molalla, Estacada, Sandy, Canby, Woodburn, Mt. Angel, Silverton and Dallas.

Four WVL Games
 The WVL'ers will draw for opponents and warm up at 7 o'clock, and at 7:30 will cut loose with four games of two regular quarters each. The team scoring the most points in any one of the games will come into possession of the new Lefty Wilder Totem Pole Trophy, a coveted item among Willamette Valley Leaguers.

Capitol Leaguers will go about their jamboree in this manner: Each team will play the other once in abbreviated games. There will be 10 such games of eight minutes duration each. The champion will be determined by arriving at the difference between a team's aggregate scoring and the points scored against it.

Roster Listed
 Player rosters for each of the schools involved in the jamboree are listed as follows (Capitol League first):
 SACRED HEART: Vance Cooley, Jim Rodewald, Bill Thompson, Vince Matt, Jim Moriarity, Fred Staab, Clyde Fladwood, Jim Borsberry, Gil Lulay, Clell Ewing, Bob Barr, Ron Enders, Jim Fischer, Coach Leo Grosjean.
 SALEM: ACACEM: Jim Pfau, Kenton Thielon, Merle Fadenrecht, Gerald Biggins, Paul Gunther, LeRoy Neufeld, Don Wyant, Curt Zimmerman, Virgil Fadenrecht, Johnny Olson, Bob McClanahan, Ken Schreder, Dave Turner, Duane Paschall, Coach Bob Funn.
 STAYTON: Ed Small, Gene Small, Dave Neitling, Roger Neilson.

Sentiment Building Up . . .

Football Platoon System Being Rapped by Coaches

NEW YORK — There's considerable sentiment against the "platoon" system of football revealed in the questionnaires that are piling up on Lou Little's desk faster than the Christmas cards these days.

But even if the consensus of the college coaches should favor doing away with platoons — a doubtful eventuality — the Columbia coach can't see where this would reduce the size of squads or help the weaker teams.

Little, who heads the Rules Committee of the American College Football Coaches Association, is conducting his annual poll on the subject. He is careful to point out that he hasn't studied enough of the 1,200 replies so far to judge the trends of thought.

Trends are what Lou's committee is trying to pin down this year. When they're established, the coaches can make definite recommendations to the National Rules Committee at its January meeting in St. Petersburg, Fla.

But Little has seen enough to know that opinion still is divided three ways on the subject of substitutions.

For the past several years, the present liberal substitution has been most favored by the coaches with unlimited substitution running second and a return to limits third.

Bevo Star

CORVALLIS — Big Jim Sugrue, regular forward for the Oregon State Beavers had this attempted shot blocked by UCLA's John Moore in their series here recently, but hopes to have better luck in Friday and Saturday night Gill Coliseum clashes with the strong Brigham Young University team.

Webfoots Set For Johnny O

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON (Special)—The Oregon Ducks closed out heavy drills Thursday in preparation for the Saturday night McArthur Court basketball clash with the Seattle U. Chieftains and their famed Johnny O'Brien. Only a light drill will occupy Coach Bill Borchers' forces Friday.

The Saturday night clash is expected to be a sellout, and fans are urged to get their seats early. The Oregon Frosh will play a preliminary game, starting at 6:15 o'clock.

Borchers will probably start Keith Farnam and Ed Halberg at forwards, Chet Noe at center and Bob Hawes and Ken Wegner at guards for the big game. Wegner has been assigned the job of checking Johnny O.

Al Brightman's Chieftains, who beat Wyoming twice last week and who lost by a bare 78-73 margin to the Peoria Caterpillars, national AAU champs, this week, will of course be led by the sharpshooting Johnny O and his twin brother Eddie.

American Loop Fielding Stars

NEW YORK — First Baseman Mickey Vernon of Washington and Outfielder Gene Woodling of the New York Yankees were the only players to repeat as defensive leaders in 1952 according to official American League statistics released Thursday.

Vernon, who topped the first sackers in fielding in 1951 with a .994 average, made 10 errors in 1,416 chances last season for a .998 mark.

Woodling made only one error in 254 chances for a .996 slate. The Yankee flycatcher finished in a triple tie for the lead in '51.

The other individual leaders were: Nelson Fox, Chicago, second base .985; Fred Hatfield, Boston - Detroit, third base, .971; Johnny Ligon, Detroit - Boston, shortstop, .981; Clint Courtney, St. Louis, catcher, .996 and Bobby Shantz, Philadelphia, 1.000.
