

Talking Parrot Greets Patrons

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—People who patronize a small honey cafe on the south side of this Arkansas oil capital usually get something for their nickel besides a cup of coffee.

Pedro, the parrot pet of the cafe, often gives the customer a conversation. Depending on the mood of the moment, Pedro greets patrons with a clear, unmistakable wolf whistle, a friendly "Hello," maybe a hospitable "Come in" or just blank scrutiny.

In parting, Pedro may tell them "Come back," "Goodbye" or "Bye Bye." The bird once told a newcomer pettishly, "Shut the door, country boy. It's cold."

His owners, Mr. and Mrs. Blondie Wells, have taught him such tricks as imitating an airplane motor when one of the pilots approaches, imitating a fire siren, and mocking the bark of a dog.
