Smorgasbord at Union Hill Marks Study of Norway

VICTOR POINT—A smorgasbord was served to families and friends by members of the Union Hill Home Extension Unit at the Union Hill Grange hall. This was a special feature of the unit's study on Norway and only typical Norwegian dishes were served.

Holiday decorations were used and a display table of Norwegian study material was enjoyed. Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Clarence Brownell and Mrs. Fred Jarvill, president and secretary of the unit.

The study of the country will be continued at the regular meeting which will be at the new home of Mrs. J. O. Darby, Jan. 20. All interested women of the community are welcome to attend.

Scouts Plan Yuletide Party At Hayesville

HAYESVILLE—Boy Scout troop 20 is planning a Christmas party Monday evening at the scout cabin on Fisher Road including a gift exchange. Last Monday the troop visited Troop 11 at the Englewood School where they practiced "dry-land" life saving. The boys are planning a paper drive in this community in the near future.

The Hayesville Hicks teen-age club at the last meeting installed new officers as follows: President, Robert Cooley; vice president, Loren Tibbetts; secretary, Audrey Roblin; and treasurer, Milo Tibbetts. Mrs. Clifford Tibbetts is again senior advisor.

The Hayesville Mother's Club has prepared a basket of food, toys and clothing, plus two quilts for a deserving family in this community.

The 4-H cooking and sewing clubs have combined their resources, also to make a basket of food and toys for a family.

A "Pig Dinner" is being planned between Christmas and New Years by the 4-H cooking club under the leadership of Miss Janice Siddall, assisted by Jeanette Siddall. This type of dinner stresses correct dinner table manners with small penalties for incorrect manners.

Karl Wipper Farm Is Sold At Cloverdale

CLOVERDALE—Mr. and Mrs. Karl B. Wipper have reported that final papers were signed on Friday, for the sale of their 235-acre home farm to the George Cadmus family from Corvallis.

Wippers, who some time ago bought the Walter Miller farm close to Turner, are making final papers to the house and will move into it by Jan. 10. The Cadmus family also will move here by that time. They have four small children.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunsaker have recently sold their farm, including both houses, to the G. Clark family, formerly of southern California. The Hunsakers have built a new home in Turner where they will live sometime after the first of the year. A daughter and family, the Don Vintons have been living in one of the houses.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorrie Newkirk (Marjorie Bouchie) returned Friday from Ft. Benning, Ga., where he has been stationed with a National Guard unit. The couple will remain here while he awaits further orders from the service.

A Christmas party was held at the Carl Booth home Friday night following the program which many attended at Cloverdale School. Present at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Olen Spiva, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Drager, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Wipper, and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Newkirk.

School vacation will start Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson left last week for California to spend the holidays with relatives.

Miss Joyce Kunke has moved to an apartment in Salem. She is employed at the Statehouse and has been living with her parents here, the A. E. Kunkes.

Lyons Circle Votes Gift for Church Home

LYONS—Mrs. Floyd Bassett and Willard Hartnell were hostesses for the meeting of the Womens Society of Christian Service at the Community club house.

The Christmas story was read by Mrs. Hartnell. It was voted for next year to send a gift to some one at the Methodist Old Peoples Home instead of drawing names for silent sisters. Refreshments were served to Mesdames Fred Stienfelt, R. A. Feenstra, Oscar Nause, Vergil Rogers, Ed Harveys, Chester Roy, George Huffman, Alex Bodeker, Wood Oliver, E. L. Roy, Clyde Bressler, Ivan Smith, James Hollingshead, Wilson Stevens, Leonard Cruson, Charles Cruson, Loren Chamberlain, Glen Jullian, Mrs. Inez Ring, Mrs. Viola Zander and Mrs. Alice Huber.
