Scout Field Executive to Get Promotion

John Y. Klapp of Salem, field executive in the Cascade Area Boy Scout Council, will leave soon for scout work in Yakima, Wash., it was announced Monday.

Klapp will be assistant executive in the Central Washington Area Council, a council similar in size to the Cascade unit, according to Gordon Gilmore, Salem scout executive.

The transfer represents a promotion for Klapp, who has been in the local council for about three and one-half years, Gilmore said. While here Klapp was in charge of the Polk and Silver Falls districts.

He is to report for duty in Yakima, Jan. 15. His successor has not yet been selected, Gilmore said.

Prior to joining the Cascade council staff Klapp taught school in Dallas, following his release from World War II duty with the U.S. Marine Corps. He resides at 2730 Sedona Ave., with his wife and young daughter, Karen, and newborn son, Stephen.

"Klapp has done an outstanding job in this council, said Gilmore. "We hate to lose him, but we know he deserved this new opportunity."

Harry Worth Succumbs to Heart Illness

Harry R. Worth, former owner of what is now Roberts Brothers store, died Monday at his residence, 490 Leslie St., following a heart illness of the past four years.

Worth, who retired in 1947, was born Oct. 8, 1881, at Charlotetown, Prince Edward Island, Can. He came to the United States in the early 1900s, settling first in Seattle, Wash. He later moved to Chehalis where he opened a store and in 1921 he moved to Salem where he purchased the W. W. Moore store here. He operated this business until his retirement and selling to Roberts Brothers.

Worth was a member of the Episcopal Church and the Knights of Pythias as well as a former member of the Kiwanis Club and the Salem Cherrians.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Irene Worth, Salem; daughter, Mrs. Helen Pomeroy, Salem; sisters, Mrs. Adelaide Naye, Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Leah McKinney, Kalamazoo, Mich., and Mrs. Janie Sentner, Charlotetown, Prince Edward Island; brothers, Fred B. Worth, Vernon, B. C., and Percy W. Worth, Charlotetown, Prince Edward Island, and a granddaughter, Diane Pomeroy, Salem.

Announcement of services will be made later by the Virgil T. Golden Company.

UCC Gives Food To Salvation Army

Several boxes each of canned and other foodstuffs was turned over to the Salvation Army Monday by employees in the contributions section of the State Unemployment Compensation Commission.

The employees contributed the food in a Christmas basket program which they substituted this year for the usual office gift exchange, according to David Cameron, contributions division supervisor.

Riley Given 4-Month Term

Sidney LaVern Riley, 824 N. Front St., was sentenced Monday to four months in the county jail on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses.

Riley appeared in Marion County Circuit Court to plead guilty to the bad check charge.

Harvey DeForest, Kelso, Wash., also appeared in court for arraignment on a charge of non-support.

Although he had waived grand jury indictment a week ago, his motion yesterday for referral to the grand jury was granted.

Mrs. Nimnicht Rites Tuesday

SILVERTON — Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 o'clock from the Ekman Funeral Home for Mrs. Pearl Nimnicht, 68, who died in her sleep Friday night and was found Saturday by neighbors. Her home had been at 509 North Mill Street, where she had lived for seven years. Her husband, Wilbur Nimnicht, was in California at the time of her death. She was born Dec. 11, 1887, in Indiana.
