DIVORCE CAUSE PROBE SINGAPORE (AP)-Divorce is so widespread among colony Moslems that the Moslem Advisory Board has appointed a committee to probe the matter and revise Moslem laws. Over 50 per cent of Moslem marriages ended in di-vorce so far this year. Of 2,091 Moslem marriages between January and September, 1,119 ended in divorce. The committee is also understood to be looking into the problem of the age at which Moslem girls get married.
