Crash Victims Leave Hospital

Three persons involved in auto accidents Friday left Salem hospitals Saturday, one to another hospital and two to their homes.

Transferred to the Tacoma, Wash., Indian Hospital was Thomas Harwood, who was a patient in the Salem Memorial Hospital ambulance when it collided with another auto Friday morning at Summer and Marion Streets. Harwood, suffering from a heart ailment, was apparently uninjured in the crash and was transferred to another ambulance and taken to the hospital.

Sent home from Memorial Hospital was 5-year-old David Bealey, who sustained a fractured leg when struck by an auto Friday in front of his home at 3805 Cherry Ave.

Discharged from Salem General Hospital was Richard Chytka, 20, of 1534 Ruge St., who was struck Friday night by a motorist at Marion and N. Commercial Streets. He incurred a leg injury.

Correspondent To Retire Jan. 1

A. L. Lindbeck, 540 N. 22nd St., Salem correspondent for the Oregon Journal for the past 34 years, will retire Jan. 1 under provisions of the newspaper's retirement plan.

He is to be replaced by Thor Severson, 32, former political and labor editor of the Denver Post. Lindbeck reported Saturday that he intends to work around his yard and in his greenhouse "just catching up." He is an active member of the Salem Garden Club.

'MEANEST THIEF' CANDIDATE
OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Another candidate for the "meanest thief" title is the burglar who broke into a general store recently and stole about $1,000 worth of groceries and merchandise. The thief also took $85 in change from a jar containing contributions for flowers for a funeral.

Mrs. Newman, 89, Succumbs; Rites Monday

Mrs. Margaret Bellzine Newman, 89, a Salem resident for the past 30 years, died Saturday at the Methodist Old Peoples Home, 1625 Center St., where she had lived since 1940.

She was born Nov. 20, 1863, the daughter of George W. and Martha Ann Sherer Forgerly who were pioneers in Linn County.

Mrs. Newman, who was active in the First Methodist Church, the Women's Missionary Society and the WTCU as well as serving as a Sunday school teacher, lived most of her life in Oregon, but spent a short time in Washington and seven years to Alberta, Can.

April 17, 1881 she was married to James W. Newman at Ellensburg, Wash. The couple were early homesteaders in the Ellensburg area and Canada.

Mrs. Newman has been in failing health for the past five years, but remained active until recently. Surviving are two sons, Grover D. Newman, Salem, and Barkley A. Newman, Portland; a sister, Mrs. Phoebe Ramsey, Albany; a brother, John Forgerly, Clarkston, Wash.; three grandchildren; one step grandson; and one great grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at the W. T. Rigdon Chapel 10:30 a. m. Monday. Riverside Cemetery services will be held at 2 p. m. at Albany with Rev. Brooks Moore officiating.

Olson Sells Florist Shop

Oscar D. (Frosty) Olson will quit his florist shop at the corner of N. High and Court Streets at the end of the month after a quarter century of operation.

Purchasers Andy Anderson and Kelly Peters who have been at Olsons since October will take over the shop Dec. 31, Olson said. Olson will continue to operate his green house and wholesale business here. Since a student at Willamette University, Olson has been in the florist business.

For about five years before opening his own shop here in 1927, Olson was with Breithaupt florists. Anderson and Peters come from Portland where both were with Oliver and Thompson, wholesale florists. Anderson was with the firm for seven years and Peters first joined Oliver and Thompson in 1939.
