The coming week is filled with numerous holiday parties including teas, at homes, New Year's eve dances and parties. Headlining the weeks' events will be the civic reception planned for Monday night between 7 and 10 o'clock at the State Capitol in compliance to former Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay. The affair will climax McKay day in Salem prior to the couple's departure for Washington, D. C., where he will be secretary of the interior in President-elect Dwight Eisenhower's cabinet. The public is invited to attend this farewell civic reception and the McKays will receive informally before the entrance way to the governor's chamber.

Entertaining with an informal open house following the civic reception are Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Raymond F. Olson, who have invited guests to their North 19th Street home. The affair will honor National Guard personnel from the Salem area, Portland and other valley points, who will be here for the reception. Guests have been asked to call after 8 o'clock.

Also on the calendar for Monday night will be the Junior Catholic Daughters winter formal at the Catholic Center between 9 and 12 o'clock. Charlie Nee and his orchestra will play for dancing and "skaters holiday" is the theme of the dance. A large group of the teen-age contingent will attend the affair.
