

Kaufman Loses TV Job Due to 'Wisecrack'

NEW YORK (AP) — George S. Kaufman, the playwright, has been dropped from the CBS television program, "This is Show Business," because of a remark on the Dec. 21 show, it was disclosed Monday. The network and the show's sponsor, the American Tobacco Co., received several hundred letters and phone calls objecting to Kaufman's comment: "Let's make this one program on which no one sings 'Silent Night'." The objections were on the ground that the remark was "anti-religious" and in questionable taste, it was said. Kaufman, himself, was taken aback by developments. Said he: "This was not wittingly an anti-religious remark. I was merely speaking out against the use and over-use of this Christmas carol in connection with the sale of commercial products."

MORE KOREA CASUALTIES
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department Monday identified 47 casualties of the Korean war. The new list (No. 720) included six killed, 35 wounded, one injured accidentally, two missing and three captured by the enemy.
