

Miss Helen Albrich Married at Nuptial Mass at St. Joseph's

Exchanging their vows at a nuptial mass at St. Joseph's Catholic Church on Saturday morning were Miss Helen Jane Albrich, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Albrich, and Walter L. Van Handel, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Van Handel of Stayton.

The Rev. Joseph E. Vanderbeck officiated at the 9:30 o'clock rites before a setting of white and pink chrysanthemums and snapdragons. Soloists were Gerald Neitling and Lawrence Alley and Mrs. Raymond Barton was the organist. The altar boys were Donald Albrich and David Foltz.

The bridal gown was of Venetian lace and satin, fashioned with a lace bodice and sleeves over satin and a full satin skirt terminating in a court train. A lace cap adorned with orange blossoms held in place her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink rapture roses, white carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Anita Albrich was her sister's honor maid and wore a ballerina gown of aqua net over satin with a bolero jacket. Bridesmaids were Miss Wanda Lambrecht and Miss Rosemary Dougherty, who wore pink ballerina frocks of nylon net over taffeta with brocaded bolero jackets. Their bouquets were of bouvardia, stephanotis and elfe roses.

Attend the Groom

Raymond Bartosz stood with the groom as best man. Groomsmen were Alan Albrich and Ronald Minten. Seating the guests were Joseph Albrich, James Brunell and Michael Dombrowsky.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Albrich wore a forest green dress with black accessories and corsage of elfe roses and stephanotis. Mrs. Van Handel wore a navy blue gown and corsage of rapture roses and stephanotis for her son's marriage.

A wedding breakfast for the bridal party and immediate family followed at the Albrich home on South High Street. In the afternoon the newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception between 1 and 4 o'clock at the Albrich residence. Pouring were Mrs. Lawrence Alley, Mrs. George Homann and Mrs. Raymond Bartosz. Mrs. Helen Provost cut the bride's cake. Assisting were Miss Rita Lange, Miss Joan and Joyce Travis and Mrs. Joseph Albrich Jr.

After a wedding trip to California the couple will be at home at Reedsport. For traveling the new Mrs. Handel changed to a grey and white coat dress of boucle, a pastel blue topper and black accessories.

Hall's Water Colors on Exhibit

Of interest to art lovers in Salem and the Willamette Valley is the exhibit of Carl Hall's water colors opening Monday, Jan. 12 at the Willamette University Art Department building. The exhibit will be open to the public for the remainder of the month through Friday each week from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Nineteen water colors are included in the exhibit, five of them on display to the public for the first time. Sponsoring the exhibit are members of the Salem Art Association and the Art Department of Willamette University.

Carl Hall is the artist in residence at Willamette University and the purpose of the exhibit is to encourage the appreciation and enjoyment of art in the Salem area.

A public reception and tea is being arranged for Friday, Jan. 16 in honor of Mr. Hall at the exhibit from 3 to 5 p. m. Miss Elizabeth Lord, chairman of the reception committee of the Salem Art Association, is in charge of the affair to which the interested public is invited.

Mrs. L. E. deWeese is chairman of the exhibits committee of the Salem Art Association and Dr. Cameron Paulin, head of the Willamette University Art Department, represents the other co-sponsor of the exhibit.
