

Beavers Face Husky Outfit

Rough Chore Waits Orange at Seattle

OREGON STATE COLLEGE—(Special) The Oregon State Beavers resume their Northern Division basketball schedule next Friday and Saturday nights at Seattle, playing the Washington Huskies. Thus the men of Coach Slat Gill have their work cut out for them, as beating the Huskies on their own floor is considered well nigh impossible these days.

Oregon State broke even with Washington State in the two conference games here last week. The Beavers zoned the Cougars into submission the first night, 39-27, but couldn't make the tactics work in the second game and lost close one, 50-45.

May Use Zone
Coach Slat Gill hasn't said whether he will use the zone defense against the big and veteran Huskies. Chances are he will continue with the platoon system of substituting, brought forth in the last three Oregon State games with Portland and WSC.

On the first platoon were Tex Whitman, Ted Romanoff, Tony Yastelica, Danny Johnson and Johnny Jarboe. Second platoons were Reggie Halligan, Jim Sugrue, Bob Edwards, Ron Robins and Bill Toole.

Stopping the hook shots of the amazing Bob Houbrigs will be the big job for the Beavers at Seattle.

Oregon State will work out Thursday on the Edmundson Pavilion floor in Seattle.

'Ride' Termed Punks Work

VILLANOVA, Pa. (U. S. — Villanova College basketball coach Al Severance said Monday reports his sophomore scoring star Bob Schaffer was "taken for a ride" before a game last week describe an incident that probably was the work of "punks who had a few bucks bet on a game."

Schaffer said Saturday that on Tuesday night he had been called from his college dormitory room, hustled into a sedan by four men who during an hour-long ride repeatedly warned him to be "less active in future games."

The 19-year-old Schaffer has been a top scorer on Villanova's team this year. The night after the reported "ride" he scored 20 points as Villanova beat Millersville State Xavier U., of Cincinnati.

Police and the FBI have been investigating the report. The Philadelphia FBI office said it still is inquiring into the situation to determine whether there has been any violation of the law within federal jurisdiction.

A friend of Schaffer told the Philadelphia Bulletin Schaffer has been a target for anonymous threats since he entered Villanova, and that recently the dormitory room Schaffer shares with teammate Jack Devine was ransacked while the team was practicing. The friend said the source of the threats never had been established.

Crusaders Set Concordia Mix

Bob Funk's Salem Academy Crusaders basketball team tonight takes on the visiting Concordia quint in an eight o'clock clash on the Crusaders' West Salem floor. Bee teams are to play the preliminary mix. The return match with Concordia will be played Feb. 21 at Concordia.

The Crusaders open their Capital League schedule next Friday night, playing the Cascade Union Cougars at West Salem. Central Union and Salem Academy play at Central next Saturday night.

Four More Games Tonight

Molalla, Woodburn Pace WVL After Early Rounds

After two rounds of play the Molalla Indians and Woodburn Bulldogs find themselves tied for first place in the Willamette Valley League basketball derby, with the Dallas Dragons, Silverton Silver Foxes, Sandy Pioneers and Estacada Rangers trailing by a full game with 1-1 records.

The league goes at it with four more games Tuesday night, Mt. Angel playing at Dallas, Estacada at Molalla, Sandy at Woodburn and Silverton at Canby.

The Woodburn-Sandy clash looms as the most important, for the Pioneers gave powerful Molalla a real struggle last Friday before going down. In other games Friday Silverton toppled Dallas, Woodburn nosed Mt. Angel and Estacada tripped Canby.

All Tuesday games will get under way following 7 p.m. prelim clashes. After two rounds of play Sandy High's Don Meyers has taken command of the individual scoring race with 39 points. Teammate Ed Hoop has 34, Leon McCammon of Silverton has 31, and both Sam Van Arsdale of Woodburn and Curt Hovland of Canby have 29. Dave Hagen of Molalla has 29 also.

Yanks Rated Team of Year

NEW YORK (U. S. — Those New York Yankees, who weren't supposed to cop their fourth straight American League flag and then blasted their way to an incredible fourth consecutive World Series triumph, were picked Monday as the outstanding team of 1932. It was the third straight year the Yankees had been accorded the "Team of the Year" honor.

In a point battle with the unbeaten Michigan State Spartans, the No. 1 college football team last season, the Yankees won in the annual Associated Press year-end poll.

With 156 of the nation's sports writers and sportscasters taking part, the Yankees of Casey Stengel received 65 first place votes, and piled up 309 points on a 3-2-1 basis. Coach Eddie Munn's Michigan State powerhouse, winner of nine games, received 45 first place votes, and 279 points. Michigan State had been voted in fifth place in last year's poll.

The Yanks and MSC were far ahead of the other teams, both professional and amateur, receiving consideration.

Third went to the great United States Olympic team, which gave a superb accounting of itself by coming from behind to beat out Russia in the unofficial point score at Helsinki last summer.

The Olympic team was placed first on 22 ballots, and got 83 points.
