Old Recipe File Yields Several members of the cabinet of President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower Cake Recipes for Readers' Trial

By MAXINE BUREN Statesman Woman's Editor

Looking through our good old recipe file, we find several cakes that attracted the eye. An angel cake that has a different flavor, is this one that's a combination of chocolate and lemon. It originally came from a Mrs. F. E. Beck, Raymond, Wash., and we've had it in the files a good 20 years.

CHOCOLATE LEMON ANGEL FOOD 1/2 teaspoon salt

1½ cups egg whites

1/3 cup cocoa

11/2 cups sugar

1 cup sifted flour

1 teaspoon cream of tartar

Sift flour, sugar and cocoa together 5 times. Beat whites, water, lemon juice and salt until foamy, add cream of tartar, beat until stiff, but not dry. Fold in dry ingredients and vanilla. Pour into large dripping pan lined with paper. Put in a 300 degree oven raising to 350, bake 1 hour. Turn out and when cold split and fill with sweetened flavored whipped cream. Frost with un-

Another old-timer is this one for a sponge cake that will use up the eggs from the angel cake. This is good when baked in a sheet pan and cut up to make small cakes. Has a Lady Finger consistency and flavor.

S EGG SPONGE CAKE

8 egg yolks ½ cup cold water 1 cup sugar

1 teaspoon vanilla 11/2 cups flour

2 tablespoons cold water

1 tablespoon lemon juice

1 teaspoon vanilla

Beat yolks with cold water, using rotary beater, add sugar gradually and beat until sugar is dissolved. Change to flat beater and add flavoring and flour gradually, beating over and over in the same direction until batter is smooth. Pour in sheet pan with greased paper on bottom, but with no grease on sides. Bake 1 hour at 300. Cut from sides of pan, invert on board and tear off paper at once. Cut into fancy shape.

Lightening tea cakes came from a Fruit and Flower Cookbook, published years and years ago. It's an easy and practical recipe.
