Web Pressmen Sign Contract

PORTLAND (AP)—AFL Web Pressmen reported Tuesday they had signed a contract with Portland's two daily newspapers which grants them pay increases of $1.23 a day and retroactive pay which will amount to about $150 a man.

Jack Ruloff, union president, said the contract calls for 43 cents a day more for the period between Jan. 1, and April 12, 1952; 20 cents a day between April 13 and Dec. 31, 1952, and 80 cents a day more for Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, 1953.

D. S. Haines, labor relations consultant for the Oregonian and Oregon Journal, said these increases raise the scale from $99.83 to $106 a week.

The contract for which negotiations were carried on for 13 months, was signed Jan. 22, Ruloff said.

30 Die as Korea Ferryboat Sinks

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—An overloaded 35-ton ferryboat sank off the Korean West Coast Sunday, and some press reports said the disaster cost 30 lives.

The Korean Transportation Ministry said only that "slightly more" than 10 persons drowned. Twenty survivors were said to be in serious condition.

The vessel was en route to a small West Coast village 30 miles north of Kusan when it went down. Kusan is a West Coast port southwest of Seoul.

A preliminary investigation indicated overloading was responsible.
