Treatment Changes Noticed In Silverton Hospital Review

BILVERTON—Ten years ago for a simple appendectomy a patient was in the hospital from 10 to 14 days compared to the three to five days now, Miss Ruth Barber, superintendent of the Silverton General Hospital said Sunday as she gave a report of the past year's local hospital work and improvement, and spoke of the changes in hospitals during the past decade. A new wing added to the local hospital was the big feature in 1952.

Patients averaged 5.2 days, making a total of 8,438 patient per patient day to the hospital, days. it has not proportionately increased cost to the patient as it would have, should the latter remain confined for as long periods of time as was required 10 years

Actual cost of running a hospital has advanced 64.2 per cent in the past 10 years she went on, adding that this is not all due to inflationary costs. Reasons include the new drugs such as antibiotics, blood transfusions and plasma as well as many of the other new treatments.

"But we get more patients well in much shorter time," she said.
The first unit of the Silverton hospital was built in 1936 at a cost of $42,000 and was dedicated by the late Governor Martin. The 1952 wing is the second one built since that time, and the plant with its many modern improvements is valued at $200,000, although it could not by any means, be rebuilt for that now, Miss Barber said.

Other recent improvements include the X-rays under a group of radiologists, the laboratory under the direction of a pathologist from the Oregon Medical pledged to the Hubbard Communschool, a registered anaesthetist, a ity church for the coming year.
