

WU Chapel Previews Brotherhood Services

An all-Brotherhood theme featured the Willamette University chapel program Thursday morning, as somewhat of a preview to Brotherhood services in many churches next Sunday.

Hal Hargreaves, pre-ministerial student from Portland, gave the chapel talk.

Salem's current observance of Brotherhood Week has been in charge of Earl T. Newberry, local chairman of the National Conference of Christians and Jews.

Milk Squabble Continues At Prineville

PRINEVILLE (AP) — The fight over the milk situation in Prineville continued Thursday with four men applying again to the State Milk Marketing Administration for a license to open a new dairy here.

They said the milk administration last week denied their application after a conference in Portland.

The four accused the milk board of arbitrary conduct and said the board was playing favorites, giving advantage to the Prineville Creamery and Kilgore Dairy at Redmond. They said that instead of allowing a new dairy to start, the milk board authorized the Redmond dairy to start bringing milk into Prineville.

The four are Leslie Clauson and James Franks, dairymen, and Lester Moen and Travis Allen, creamery workers.

They asked the milk board to hold a public hearing in Prineville on their application for a new dairy.

Eagle Badges Due Seven at Honor Court

Seven Salem area Boy Scouts and Explorers will become Eagle Scouts in March at a local court of honor.

Six of the boys who have earned scouting's highest honor were special guests at the Salem Lions Club at a luncheon Thursday in the Marion Hotel. How the Scout program helps create brotherhood and international harmony was subject of a talk at the meeting by Gordon Gilmore, Cascade Area Council scout executive.

The boys at the meeting were Dave Adams and Robert Yonker of Keizer Explorer Post 41; Leroy Griebenow, Salem Troop 1 (Rotary); Ronald Brown, Explorer Post 3 (Hollywood Lions); Julian Thurston, Troop 2 (Optimist); Bruce Blecker, Troop 8 (Presbyterian). Not present but recognized was James Bowers, Troop 8.

Personal To Women With Naggng Backache

Naggng backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 60 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 10 million of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste.
