House Dances To Highlight Weekend

By FEEBLE DeSART
Statesman Correspondent

CORVALLIS—The end of winter term is rapidly approaching and Oregon State students suddenly realize that there are only three weeks of classes left before finals. But this fact doesn't seem to put a damper on the many campus activities.

Scheduled for tonight is the "Aqua Extra" show. Presented in the swimming pool of the Women's building, the 11 acts of water antics will be carried out by members of Seabrooks and Aquabats. Seabrooks is a group of campus women interested in swimming, and Aquabats is the women's swimming honorary. Katja Litovista and Jo Stettler of Salem are helping with the ticket sales.

February 17 members of Alpha Lambda Delta, sophomore women's scholastic honorary, presented their annual "Brain Bust" party. At this time freshmen women who have achieved a 3.3 grade average or better are entertained, and if they maintain the high grades they will be tapped for membership spring term. Pat Morton of Salem attended this function.

Many of the living organizations have been electing new officers to take over at the beginning of spring term. John Casper was recently honored with the vice-presidency of his fraternity, Theta Chi.

House Dances this Weekend
This weekend will set off another whirl of parties and dances given by various living groups.

Gamma Phi Beta sorority will present their traditional "Big 'O' Sweden" dance Saturday night. The girls embroider felt suspenders for their dates who wear ski pants or short hiking pants which harmonize with the peasant outfits of the girls.

During the evening Alice Lehman will entertain the couples with her yodeling. JoAnne Maje and Al Olson, Mary Fleke and Bob Hanauka will be seen at the function, as well as Barbara Wagner, Pat Morton, F. Mearns and Donna Notheifer with their dates.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity is also having a costume dance Saturday night entitled "Skid Row," where Dick Evans, John Conder, and Dick Meyers can be seen enjoying themselves with their dates. Sigma Chi fraternity is using "Slaughter on 10th Avenue" as the title of their freshman firsides. Costumes will be in order here too at Barney Rogers, George Porter, and Dennis Fleke search their brains for original ideas in dress.

Tri Delta Margaret Acton, Beverly Young, Pat Healy, and Sally Becker will be busy Saturday afternoon ranging for their firsides, "On the Set," where the couples will come dressed as characters from current moving pictures.

Birthday Party For War Mothers

The Salem Chapter, American War Mothers held a birthday party and luncheon on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ben Randall celebrating the National American War Mothers birthday. The occasion was the 29th Congressional birthday of the American War Mothers organization. Chapters throughout the national gave similar parties, according to Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, national president, who was present for the Salem Chapter's party.

A large group attended and the tables were decorated with bouquets of spring flowers. Place cards were miniature hearts. Mrs. Mildred Viecko was chairman, assisted by Mrs. W. E. Burke, Mrs. Alma Hatfield and Mrs. Cora Hutchison.

Mrs. Glenn Prather, president, introduced Mrs. E. E. Bergman, who gave a talk on "Americanism." Mrs. Addie Curtis gave a group of readings.

Church Scene Of Nuptials

BROOKS—Before a setting of pink snapdragons and pink candles at the First Church of the Nazarene on Feb. 14 Ruth Pfau Hill, daughter of Anton Pfau Sr., became the bride of H. Allison Vogt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Quisen Vogt.

The Rev. Fred Vogt, brother of the groom, officiated at the 3 o'clock nuptials before members of the immediate families and a few friends. The Rev. Hal Glover gave the prayer. Mrs. C. C. Edwards played the wedding music and the Rev. Joe Calderon sang.

For her wedding the bride chose a shell pink suit trimmed in navy and navy blue accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid.

Mrs. Gerald Ayllett was the bride's only attendant and Robert Vogt was best man. Ushers were Floyd Schuk, Don Waggoner and Brooks Rogers.

A reception followed at the Brooks country home of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Pfau. Mrs. Hal Glover cut the cake and pouring were Mrs. Fred Vogt and Mrs. David Pfau.

After a wedding trip to Southern California the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 1645 South Capital Street.
