

Champion School Spellers Named to Statesman-KSLM 1953 Program Semi-finals

Woodburn—Barbara Paulson, 13, who takes a major interest in music and literature, copped the spelling championship of Washington School and will represent Woodburn in the Oregon Statesman-KSLM Contest semi-finals here Thursday, March 12.

Barbara was runner-up a year ago. She is in the 8th grade and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Paulson. She was certified for the semi-finals by Principal Charles M. Campbell.

Florence Rice, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Rice, and Ronald Clark, son of J. R. Clark, won second and third respectively. Both Florence and Ronald are 12 years old and in the 7th grade.

Jefferson—Last year's spelling runner-up—13-year-old Sandra Dawson—took first honors at Jefferson this year.

She will compete in the semi-finals of The Oregon Statesman-KSLM Spelling Contest at Turner, Friday night, March 6.

Sandra, an 8th grader, is interested in many things besides spelling, including reading and singing. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dawson, Route 1, Jefferson. She was certified as champion spelled by Principal J. W. Rowe. Her teacher is Mrs. Almada Long.

Second place went to Janis Burgess, 12, daughter of Bookman Burgess, Route 2, Albany, and third to Nancy McDaniel, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. McDaniel, Route 3, Box 808, Salem. Janis is in the 7th grade, Nancy the 8th.

Turner—James Uhrhammer, versatile 13-year-old who won his way to the grand Oregon Statesman-KSLM Spelling Contest but finally slipped on "nasturtium," will represent Turner in the semi-finals here Friday night, March 6.

James is now an 8th grader and the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Uhrhammer. He will compete in the semi-finals here Friday night, March 6. His hobbies are sports and chemistry.

Second place at Turner was won by Carol Freeman, 14, who took third place last year, and third place this time went to Gladys Riches, also 14. Both are in the 8th grade. Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Freeman, Route 1, Box 9G, Turner, and Gladys is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace T. Riches, Route 2, Box 64, Turner.

Pedee—Dewey Cummins particularly likes reading and playing ball, but he also has plenty of aptitude for spelling.

The 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Cummins of the Monmouth area took first place in spelling at Pedee School and will compete in the semi-finals at Independence, Tuesday night, March 10.

Second and third place went to two 8th-graders—LaVerne Price, 12, last year's winner, whose mother is Mrs. Dorothy McCreary, and Kay Frances Wells, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wells.

Bridgeport—Thirteen-year-old Iris Trueax, who placed second in spelling at this Polk County school in 1952, won first place this year. She was certified by Principal Alice Lund as Bridgeport's representative at the Oregon Statesman-KSLM Contest semi-finals at Independence, Tuesday night, March 10.

Iris, an 8th-grader whose hobby is painting, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trueax, Route 2, Box 178, Dallas.

Kay Shutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mason Shutt, Route 2, Box 136, Dallas, placed second, and Martha Marion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marion, Route 2, Box 180, Dallas, both girls are 12 and in the 7th grade.

Knights of Pythias
Add Three Members

Three candidates were given the rank of knight at the meeting of Central Lodge 18, Knights of Pythias, in Salem Wednesday evening.

They are Lee Tanner, Glen Jones and Carl Lorenzen.

Fred Stein, chancellor commander, presided over the meeting, attended by large delegations from Eugene, Corvallis, Independence, Hubbard and Silverton.

Sunnyside—Karen Nelson, champion Sunnyside speller last year who barely missed a berth in the grand finals, will represent her school again in the semi-finals of The Oregon Statesman-KSLM Contest. She will compete at Turner, Friday night, March 6.

Karen, 14 and in the 8th grade, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy K. Nelson, Route 4, Box 608, Salem. Her hobbies are reading and traveling. She was certified as champion speller by Principal Violet Hooker.

Linda Koester, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Koester, Route 4, Box 878 Salem, and Gloria Croshaw, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Croshaw, Route 2, Turner, won second and third respectively. Both are 8th-graders.

Aurora—Betty Jo Kell repeated her victory in spelling at Aurora School this year and again will compete in the semi-finals of The Oregon Statesman-KSLM Spelling Contest. Betty Jo now is 14 and in the 8th grade.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kell, Rt. 2, Aurora.

The winner was certified for this district's semi-finals to be held at Woodburn, Thursday night, March 12, by Principal Floyd E. McLin.

Certified as runner-up in spelling at Aurora was Jackie Da Lee, 13, who resides with Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott, Route 1, Aurora, and winning third place was Wayne Lowrie, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lowrie, Aurora. Jackie is in the 7th grade, Wayne the 8th.

Antioch—Bill McKown, 14, who was third-place winner last year, topped Antioch in spelling for 1953 and will compete in a semi-finals of The Oregon Statesman-KSLM Spelling Contest at Independence, Tuesday, March 10.

Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Littleton, Route 2, Monmouth, and his hobby is wood carving. He was certified as champion by Principal Meda T. Foster.

Patricia Smith, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Crook, Route 2, Monmouth, took second place. Both Bill and Patricia are 8th-graders.

Evelyn Visnaw Rites Saturday

Services for Mrs. Evelyn Visnaw who died Tuesday following an illness of the past two years, will be held Saturday at 1:30 p.m. in the Clough-Barrick Chapel.

The Rev. G. B. Rundstrom will officiate and interment will be at Belcrest Memorial Park.

Mrs. Visnaw, a resident of Salem since 1936, was born Sept. 16, 1903, in Dreary, Ida, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson. She married Fred E. Visnaw in Dallas, Ore., in 1923. While living in Salem they had resided at 120 N. 25th St.

Survivors, besides the widow, of Salem, include sons, Fred E. Visnaw, Taylorville, Calif., and Vernon Visnaw, Salem; sisters, Mrs. Florence Snetter, Clarkston, Wash., and Mrs. Maybel Mauer, Wilson Creek, Wash.; brothers, Sam and Victor Anderson, both of Dreary, Ida, and a granddaughter, Lorena Visnaw, Taylorville, Calif.

ORDNANCE, Ore. (AP)—Lay-off notices went Wednesday to 140 civilian employees at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot near here.

Lt. Col. Frank Eccles, commanding the depot, said a decrease in shipping and receiving is causing the reduction. It represents about 12 per cent of the civilian workers.

City Electric Defendant in Material Suit

Suit for more than $26,000 allegedly due for materials provided for Salem and Corvallis traffic light installations was filed Thursday against City Electric, Inc., of Salem.

The actions were brought in Marion County Circuit Court by the state in relation to General Electric Distributing Corp., against City Electric and its sureties, Hartford Accident and Indemnity Co. and Phoenix Indemnity Co.

The suit for Salem, for a contract signed in 1950, seeks $15,599.50, allegedly due out of $16,253 worth of signals, poles, wires and other materials supplied. The one for Corvallis, for 1950 work, seeks $11,225.50 of a $13,355 total.

The state is in the suit because City Electric's contract was with the State Highway Commission.

Brotherhood Service Set at Salem Temple

Persons of all faiths have been invited to a Jewish service and program tonight at Salem's Temple Beth Shalom, 1795 Broadway.

Among those participating in the program will be Salem co-chairs of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, in recognition of Brotherhood Week.

Principal speaker will be Dr. Howard W. Runkel of Willamette University.

ORDNANCE, Ore. (AP)—Lay-off notices went Wednesday to 140 civilian employees at the Umatilla Ordnance Depot near here.

Lt. Col. Frank Eccles, commanding the depot, said a decrease in shipping and receiving is causing the reduction. It represents about 12 per cent of the civilian workers.

Police Chiefs To Meet Here

Police chiefs from more than 40 Oregon cities will confer for a day-long round table discussion followed by a banquet this evening.

This was believed to be the first get-together of this kind to be held in Oregon, Salem Chief Clyde A. Warren advised.

The business session, to be held in the city council chambers, will begin officially at 1:30 p.m. and run through till 5:30 this evening.

Raymond Coulter, representing the League of Oregon Cities, will address the group on the subject of bills before the state legislature involving police work. The session is to be spontaneous, Warren explained, and a temporary chairman will be appointed to maintain conventional order.

Wheat Closes On Small Gains

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat wound up with small gains on the board of trade Thursday after several attempts at a more robust advance failed.

One reason why wheat couldn't get very far was the reluctance of most other cereals to join the upswing.

Wheat closed 1/4-3/8 higher, corn 1/2 lower to 3/4 higher, oats 1/4-1/2 lower to 1/4 higher and rye unchanged to 1/2 cents a hundred pounds lower.

Main item stirring up demand for wheat, particularly the stronger deferred months, was the poor condition of the winter wheat crop in the Southwest.
