

THE VALLEY NEWS COLUMNS

From The Oregon Statesman's Valley Correspondents

Spelling Bee At Silverton On Wednesday

SILVERTON—Eleven schools will be represented at a semi-finals of The Oregon Statesman-KSLM Spelling Contest in Eugene Field Auditorium here Wednesday night. The group of contestants will include 10 girls and one boy—all school champions. The winner will receive a Webster's Collegiate Dictionary and the winner and runner-up will qualify for the grand finals at which defense-bond prizes will be awarded at Parrish Junior High in Salem, March 25. The 11 contestants will be seated in alphabetical order of their last names. The public is invited without charge or collection. The participations will be: Bethany—Verlene Miesenhelmer, 13. Evergreen—Charlotte Moore, 13. McKee—Madonna Edgell, 12. Monitor—Carole Homann, 12. Mt. Angel—Ruth Wilde, 13. Mt. Angel Academy—Sue Slatten, 14. Scotts Mills—Barbara Goshorn, 14. Silver Crest—Anna Lou Gordon, 13. Silverton—Marlin Hutton, 14. Union—Charlene Mae Shaner, 13. Victor Point—Mary Linda Doerfler, 13. The Victor Point entry was third-place winner in the grand finals in 1932.

Lyons Father, Son Banquet Well Attended

LYONS—The Father and Son banquet sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Service and held at the all-purpose room at the Mari-Linn school was attended by a large crowd, Thursday evening. Gifts were presented to Loren Chamberlain, oldest father present, and Loren Walker, youngest father. John Carpenter from radio station KOIN was the guest speaker of the evening also. Soloist, Invocation by Rev. R. A. Feenstra. Introduction by Orin Morgan. Welcome by Albert Julian, Response Irvin Thompson. The Lyons Community band furnished the music of the evening, directed by Virgil Rogers who also played a Saxophone solo.

Willamina Church Of Christ Calls Rev. Elmo Black

WILLAMINA—Rev. and Mrs. Elmo Black have been chosen to fill the pastorate of the Church of Christ. Rev. Black is a former Dallas resident and has been attending Northwest Christian College in Eugene, where he expects to receive his degree this spring. He was scheduled to occupy the pulpit of the church beginning March 8.

Rev. and Mrs. Leo A. Woodruff and sons have moved to Eugene, where Rev. Woodruff has accepted a post at the Fairmount Church of Christ. Rev. Dean C. Poindexter, minister of the Bend First Methodist church, will be guest speaker at the Willamina Methodist church for a week beginning March 8. Special services, at which Mr. Poindexter will also preach, will be held each weekday evening at 8 p.m. The services are part of the United Evangelistic Mission being carried on in all Methodist churches of the state.

Carnival Planned at N. Marion HS Friday

HUBBARD—A carnival and fun-night is being sponsored at North Marion High School Friday at 8 p.m. by the Band-Parent Club. A dance, a wrestling match and games will comprise the evening's entertainment. The club hopes to purchase a majorette's uniform with the proceeds. The chorus will make and sell homemade candy and use the proceeds to start a choral robe fund.

BRIGHTEN YOUR SMILE

Advertisement for Wrigley's Spearmint Gum. Includes text: 'Keep teeth bright', 'Chew Wrigley's Spearmint Gum. Chewing helps cleanse the teeth. Helps keep them naturally bright. Enjoy this tasty gum daily.' and an image of the gum pack.

Woodburn BPW Hear of History Of Town in 1900

WOODBURN—The program for the B.P.W. meeting last Thursday night included a talk on the early history of Woodburn by Mrs. Sam Smith and a talk on music and arts in relation to Woodburn by Mrs. N. A. Mann. An interesting note in Mrs. Smith's talk was the fact that Woodburn had more business establishments in the early 1900's than it has today, while Mrs. Mann pointed out how fortunate Woodburn residents were to be located so conveniently to the music and art centers of both Portland and Salem and yet to have the advantages of small-town living. The next meeting of the B.P.W. will be at the library Thursday, March 19 at 8 p.m. and will be for members and friends. Mayor Elmer Mattson will address the group on matters pertaining to civic problems. The next business meeting is scheduled for April 2, at which time, election of new officers will be held. Mrs. Raymond Equall, Mrs. Clara Stange and Mrs. John Dickson were appointed to serve on the nominating committee.

Three-Act Play Set at Rosedale

ROSEDALE—A three act play The Young Scamp, will be presented by the Salem Civic Players on Tuesday night March 10 at 8:00 p.m. at the Rosedale school. The Parents' Club is sponsoring this and the proceeds will be for benefit of school. The Club will also sell home made candy. Mrs. Lee Fredrickson and Mrs. Howard Largent will conduct the program at the regular Parents' Club meeting to be held Tuesday, March 10 at 1:30 p.m. at the school. A program of landscaping the school grounds and the proper care of it will be presented before the school children.

Chicken Dinner Dated for Friday By Mothers Club

SALEM HEIGHTS—Mrs. Arvilla Boyer's fourth grade will present the program to Salem Heights Mothers Club at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Salem Heights Community Hall. Final plans will be made for the club's annual chicken dinner scheduled for Friday. Mrs. Hale Mickey is the chairman and Mrs. L. A. Clinker co-chairman. Mrs. J. M. Ballard will be the hostess chairman and will be assisted by the mothers of Mrs. Charlotte Jones' pupils.

Valley Briefs

Annville—Recent graduate of Emmanuel School of Nursing in Portland is Loris Papke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Papke. Miss Papke was one of 49 in the class. She was a graduate of Cascade Union High School with the class of 1931 where she was valedictorian.

Lyons—Lyons visitor recently was Lawrence McCaleb, cousin of Mrs. Robert Free, who is enroute to his home in Rochester, Minn., following discharge from the Navy.

Woodburn—The 34th anniversary of the Woodburn American Legion post will be observed here Wednesday night with a birthday banquet. Ladies of the auxiliary will act as hostesses.

Silverton—Richard Beealey, will serve as toastmaster for the Silverton Toastmasters club breakfast on Thursday, 7 a.m. Speakers will be William Bloch, Norman Blaufus, Robert A. Epeneter and John Overlund.

Lyons—Mrs. Charles Cruson with the Intermediate Girl Scouts entertained with a tea at the Cruson home recently.

Liberty—The Liberty Mothers Club will meet Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the Liberty School and a nominating committee appointed.

East Salem—Lancaster Home Extension Unit will exhibit "gifts from cloth" and will serve as hostesses during the annual Homemakers Festival this spring.

Lake Labish—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Larson are expected home this week after two weeks spent in Southern California. Addison Page and his sister are returning from a winter stay in Arizona.

Lincoln—Mrs. Henry Brudos is opening her home at Lincoln for a desert luncheon for Lincoln Goodwill club at 1 p.m. Thursday. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Lois Crawford.

Progress in Health Work Told at Meet

HUBBARD—Progress in health problems by medical and scientific sources, given by Mrs. Floyd Dominick, and information about the Hubbard Extension Unit given by the various committees of the unit, made up the program of the Hubbard Woman's club meeting, Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Schei, president. Announced was the state conference of the GFWC in Salem, April 8.

Mrs. E. T. Rose, TB seal chairman for 3 years, reported $231.50 for the Hubbard area this year and asked to be relieved of the committee. Mrs. N. A. Mann volunteered to take it.

Mrs. Schei appointed Mrs. A. L. Murphy, Mrs. E. T. Rose and Mrs. Lenore Schour on the nominating committee.

Mrs. Robert Aldrich was a guest. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Elton McLaughlin and Mrs. Sadie Rich.

Practice Held By Saddle Club

SALEM HEIGHTS—Drill practice in the field was given to the South Salem Junior Saddle Club on Saturday afternoon. Ervin Ward, captain of the drill team of the Salem Saddle Club, who has been giving the juniors instructions, explained how to properly saddle a horse and demonstrated it. He gave drills and stressed the points for good drilling, and told the importance of the right and left leads.

Dick, Mike and Jeff McKillop were host to the group. Others attending were Mitchel Murdock, Judy Baker, Lynne Hammerstad, Marvin Murdock, Cheryl Lee Kurth, Karla Anderson, Mary Wilbur, Jeanne Rue, Clark Jackson, Bonnie Jean Kurth and Phil Jackson and Gerald Kurth.

Keizer Garden Club To Meet on March 17

KEIZER—Keizer Garden Club's next meeting will be next Tuesday, March 17, not this Tuesday as inadvertently reported. It will be a public-meeting at 8 p.m. in the Fire Hall for a question and answer program on flowers, shrubs, vegetable and truck gardening and other garden topics.

Marquam Women Eye Year's Plans

MARQUAM—The WSCS society met at the community hall Wednesday. Mrs. I. C. Woodard gave a very instructive lesson on Africa and Mrs. Pauline Swarthout had the Devotional. The president Mrs. John Beck officiated for the business session.

Plans were made for the fall Bazaar and committees selected to select the new officers for the coming year were Mrs. Emery James, Mrs. Darnon Mumford and Mrs. Orrin Rice. Mrs. W. McPherson was appointed historian for the church and the Tamale supper which has been on the agenda for over 30 years.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Kathryn Paquin and Merle Bye.

South Marion County ARC Drive Planned

JEFFERSON—Mrs. Marvin Hutchings has been named by Delmer Davidson, chairman for south Marion county in their annual Red Cross roll call, and will head the drive in this community. No quota has been set, and solicitation will be well underway Monday of next week.

Mrs. Hutchings has named the following to help: Mesdames Howard Broxson, Charles Borst, Paul McKee, C. D. Person, W. D. Barnes, Percy Wells, J. F. Blackwell, Nettie Hawk, Ivan Sutton, W. A. Stephenson, M. N. McGill, Alvin Robinson, V. E. Goin, D. C. Buchner, Hal Reeves, Gilbert Looney and Henry Hochspeler.

They will solicit in Jefferson, on Greens Bridge across to Marion road and Parish Gap. Looney Butte and Talbot road to the Pacific highway.

Three Amity Students To Vie in News Contest

AMITY—Three Amity high school students will compete with representatives of some 85 other schools in Oregon and Washington for top prize in Journalism competition at Pacific University March 28. The three are Jackie Williams, Evelyn Nauman and James McKinney. Top prize in the contest which covers news writing, news feature reporting, editorial writing, sports and speech reporting will be a two-year scholarship.

The Nation's Top Comics

DAILY AND SUNDAY in Your Home Newspaper

A grid of comic strips including Dagwood, Blondie, Dick Tracy, Little Annie Rooney, Buzz Sawyer, Mickey Mouse, Hip Kirby, Gasoline Alley, and Barney Google. Each strip contains several panels with dialogue and illustrations.

Large advertisement for Batdorf's Firestone Stores. Features the text 'BATDORF'S LEADS AGAIN!' and 'BATDORF'S FIRESTONE STORES'. Includes address: 2095 Fairgrounds Road, Phone 3-7455 and 1420 State St., Phone 3-9582. Also mentions 'We Give S&H Green Stamps' and 'OPEN EVENINGS 'TIL 9 P. M.'.