A CHILDREN'S... fashion show on Tuesday afternoon at the American Legion Club... The Chi Omega alumnae sponsoring the affair attended by over 150 women... and lots of children in the audience as it was definite their show, even though the mothers and alumnae modeled smart spring outfits... all proceeds to go to the pediatric ward at the new Salem Hospital addition... Mrs. Dale Pence chairman of the annual show...

Adjectives... will not describe the adorable youngsters, some thirty in all... most of them preschool age and even a few, who have only been walking the past year... there was one who cried, but when a child saw the world in a new light... there were winks, curtsies, and lots of smiles from the youngsters... a few of the boys modeling as if they had been doing it for years... Sunday School outfits, school clothes, party dresses, play clothes, what to wear at the beach, and the traditional cowboy and Indian outfits all modeled by the children... A low runway erected just for the children and covered in pastel green paper with a striped carpet... Most of the children accompanied by their mothers or Chi Omega alumnae... A Chi Omega active, Margaret C. Kirklin of Bend ably taking over the commenting duties at the last minute... Marilynn Hunter singing and Evelyn Plog playing incidental music during the show... both Chi Omega coeds...

The decor... bird cages filled with blossoms decorating the hall and pastel streamers at the entrance for the models to enter... The tea table set against the window and covered with a yellow brocaded satin gown... so spring like the centerpiece of white quince blossoms with white daisies at the base of the arrangement in a crystal tray... miniature yellow birds tied with pastel ribbon to the branches... even two birds perched atop the punch bowl... the punch a favorite with the children as well as the adults... Mrs. W. Connell Dyer and Mrs. B. O. Schucking pouring...

A number... of out-of-town guests noted amidst the crowd... A group of Chi Omega alumnae down from Portland... Don't Bother With Dishes, Just Throw Them Away; Aluminum Foilware

By ELENORE LESTER
Lady, the millennium is here, in which you can actually cook, freeze, store, reheat, and serve your food in one and the same dish—and then throw the dish away.
A new line of aluminum foilware dishes offers the answer to the homemaker's prayer. They come in 12 sizes and shapes for baking pies, cooking casseroles, broiling fish, and performing any other ordinary operation you can think of.
The housewife can now cook her food for the freezer in a foilware dish which comes with a seal-tight lid that even has a place on which she can write the name of the food and the date of freezing.
Then when she is ready to serve the dish, the homemaker takes it out of the freezer, puts it into the oven for heating, and brings it right to the table in the same aluminum dish. After dinner—presto—she just throws away the dish.

If she's in an economical mood, she can wash and reuse the dish any number of times. Depending on the size and shape of the foilware dish, and her own imagination, she can put it to use as an ashtray, coaster, candy dish, or flower pot.
The dishes come in assorted sizes and shapes, in sealed plastic bags, in prices ranging from 29 cents to 98 cents, depending on the assortment.
So throw away your dishpan and free yourself from the tedious job of washing sticky pots, pans, and dishes. Just toss the dinner dishes into the garbage can, and join your family right away at the TV set.

Spring Lamb One of Best Buys: Special Recipes, Menus Are Given

By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Woman's Editor

In these days of modern agriculture and marketing practices, lamb is an all-year meat, however, spring is the special season for this food. Statisticians tell us that approximately 3,754,000 lambs were being prepared for the market Jan. 1, and are now moving into the markets at a greater than normal rate. Approximately 300,000 more lambs were marketed this January than last. Lamb is a good meat buy, and certainly one of the best of all flavored meats.

Take lamb shoulder for instance, one of the most economical of roasts. Here's a menu for a lamb dinner:

- Mixed Greens salad
- Braised Rolled Lamb Shoulder
- Whipped potatoes
- Buttered beets
- Spicy gravy
- Black Walnut Cake a la mode

A spicy touch is given to the roast when it's cooked like this:

- ### BRAISED ROLLED LAMB SHOULDER
- 3 to 4-pound rolled lamb shoulder
 - 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
 - 1 teaspoon ground ginger
 - 3 tablespoons flour
 - 1 teaspoon dry mustard
 - 2 tablespoons melted drippings
 - 1/4 cup water

Combine ginger, dry mustard, cloves, salt and flour. Dredge lamb shoulder with seasoned flour, saving remaining mixture. Brown slowly on all sides in lard or drippings. Add water. Cover closely and cook slowly until meat is done, allowing 40 to 45 minutes per pound, or about 3 hours. Thicken drippings with remaining dredging mixture for gravy.

Or if you like your lamb with a dash of foreign flavor try this menu with Lamb au Bouchette (French for "on a skewer")

- Lamb en brochette
- Green beans with Toasted Almonds
- Hard Rolls
- Jelly
- Cottage Pudding, lemon sauce

Lamb patties are economical meat, try them with a menu that includes buttered lima beans, French fried potatoes, lettuce-tomato salad and fudge cake.

- ### FRUITED LAMB PATTIES
- 1 pound ground lamb
 - 1 egg
 - 2 slices bacon
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 4 cooked prunes, pitted
 - 1/4 cup milk
 - 1/2 cup crushed corn flakes
- Chop bacon, cook until crisp and fill center of prunes. Combine lamb, corn flakes, egg, salt and milk; mix well. Divide mixture into fourths, and shape each patty around a stuffed prune. Place patties on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan allowing 2 inches between heat and surface of meat. Broil patties on one side until they are brown, 8 to 10 minutes. Turn and brown on second side. 4 servings.

Miss Shepard A Bride of Tuesday

Amidst a setting of spring blossoms and flowers at the First Christian Church Tuesday night Miss Leona Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shepard of Portland, formerly of Salem, became the bride of David Lee Chamberlain, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Chamberlain.

The 7:30 o'clock rites were performed by the Rev. Dudley Strain. Verne Esch was the soloist and Mrs. Joseph Cracrott the organist. Of white satin was the bridal gown fashioned en train and seed pearls outlining the sweetheart neckline. A small, brimmed cap held in place her fingertip illusion veil. She carried a prayer book marked with a white orchid.

Miss Helen Shepard was her sister's honor maid and wore a mist pink net gown with stole. She carried a bouquet of orchid carnations. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Ellis Sanders, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Orville Horn, wore orchid net frocks with stoles and carried pink carnations. Cheryl Weisner was the flower girl and wore a white organza dress.

Brother is Best Man
Lawrence Chamberlain stood with his brother as best man. Ushers were Alton L. Chamberlain, also a brother, Donald Jones, Gerald McReal, Wade Carter and Delwyn Kleen.

The bride's mother chose a grey ensemble with pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations for the wedding. Mrs. Chamberlain attended her son's marriage in a light grey and rose ensemble with white accessories and corsage of white carnations.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlors. Pouring were Mrs. Fred Blum and Miss Lena Blum. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Neils Nelson and Mrs. Tom Wolgamott. Assisting were Miss Gwen

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Bartlett (Phoebe Denton of Valselt) who were married on Feb. 23 at the home of Dr. Earl H. Benbow in Dallas. The couple will reside in Dallas. (Lyman's Photo Shop).

Fry, Miss Betty Smith, Miss Greta Ann Schreengost, Miss LaVerne Shepard, Mrs. Delwyn Kleen and Miss Shirley Karsten.

After a wedding trip to California the couple will be at home in Salem at 1148 Leslie St. For traveling the bride donned a champagne suit with navy and pink accessories and a pink top coat and hat.

New Citizens Are Greeted

Two new citizens were greeted by Salem families the first of the week. A little boy, Scott Allan, was born to Lt. (ig) and Mrs. Ronald Smith (Carmen Campbell) on Monday night at the Salem General Hospital. The lad has a brother, Jeffrey. The navy officer is currently in Hawaii, having recently returned from a tour of duty in Japan. The baby's grandparents are Mrs. Van Wiedner and Ellsworth Smith and the great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Smith, Mrs. A. S. Campbell and Mrs. Fannie Hill, all of Salem.

A daughter, Bonnie Bell, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Washburn (Buena Stewart) on Monday at the Salem Memorial Hospital. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Stewart and Fred Washburn of Portland. The baby's great-grandmother is Mrs. Clara Stewart of Salem.

Betrothal of Duo Told

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Feller are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Louise, to George Schlegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Schlegel of Albany. No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Feller is a graduate of Salem schools and attended Oregon State College. She is now employed at the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Her fiancé attended Albany schools and is now in the navy, stationed at Treasure Island.
