Building Bee Set At Waldo Hills

Statesman News Service
WALDO HILLS—A community building "bee" and no-host dinner is planned for Sunday, March 22, at the Waldo Hills Club House. Lumber and building materials will be on hand for the addition which has been planned. Workers are asked to bring tools.

Plans call for a one-story annex to include rest rooms and entrance hall. Committees from both the Waldo Hills Community Club and the Waldo Hills Grange have been working on the project.

Thursday at the home of Mrs. Nona Sidebottom.
Mrs. Marsha Leshar was in charge of the program.

Reports Given At Meeting

The regular monthly business meeting of Salem Unit 136, American Legion Auxiliary was held Thursday evening at the Salem Woman's Club and Mrs. Harrie Hendricks was introduced as a new member.

Poppy Poster chairman, Mrs. Robert Freiss, reported that all material for the Poppy Posters had been placed in the schools, and judging would take place next month. Girls state chairman, Mrs. Dow Lovell, reported that the unit would again sponsor two girls to Girls State in June.

Americanism chairman, Mrs. Ellis Drake, distributed "Flag Codes" to the members and displayed a flag which the unit will present later to a Brownie troupe, which they will sponsor. Child Welfare chairman, Mrs. Wilbur

Lytle, reported that a gift of 33 quarts of fruit, and 18 pints of jam had been donated by a member and these had been distributed to families the auxiliary is helping. On May 1 the unit will hold a rummage sale.

Junior Auxiliary met Saturday at the Woman's Club. Last month they made St. Patrick tray favors and sent 50 to Dornbecker Hospital in Portland and 50 to the Medford Hospital. Saturday they made tray favors for Easter, which will be sent to the Tuberculous Hospital.

The sewing group will meet for sewing March 16 at 10:30 at the home of Mrs. Theodore Ullakko, 1756 Court St.

At the social meeting of the unit on March 26 the past presidents of the unit will be honored. A covered dish dinner for the auxiliary and post will be held April 30 at the Mayflower Hall. Hostesses for the meeting Thursday were Mrs. Harold Shoberg and Mrs. Rosemary Henningsgard.
