FFA Dance Due Friday At Cascade

Statesman News Service
TURNER — The second annual FFA dance, featuring the music of Tommy Kizziah and his West Coast Ramblers, will be held at Cascade Union High School gym on Friday from 9 to 12 p.m. The Turner Farm Bureau will act as sponsors.

A queen for the dance will be selected from four attractive princesses. These are Lorene Edwards, representing the senior class; Theresa Vose, junior class; Pat Ahrens, sophomore class; and Verla Shirley, freshman class. The girls were selected by members of the Future Farmers of America Chapter at Cascade.

The queen will be elected on the basis of a penny vote, the votes being deposited in four ballot boxes in the main hall of the school building. During intermission the results will be announced and the queen crowned.

The proceeds are to be used to finance sending two delegates from the chapter to the national FFA convention in Kansas City in October.

Last year, Lee Metcalfe and Howard Speer attended the national convention. Upon returning the chapter representatives reported the events of the convention to the chapter and to civic organizations of the community.
