Buchenwald Graves Found

BERLIN (AP)—A mass grave containing almost 700 bodies has been found near the old concentration camp at Buchenwald, the West Sunday.

The camp was founded by the Nazis and later used by the Communists. Children playing in the area accidentally discovered the grave, "he paper said, and Communist police have cordoned off the region.

Because the Gregorian calendar was not adopted by England and her colonies until 1753, the first four Presidents of the United States celebrated their birthdays on one date as children and on another date in maturity.

East Berlin Police Shoot At 4 People

BERLIN (AP)—Communist police fired on four persons who inadvertently entered the Russian Zone Sunday during an afternoon walk in the wooded southern tip of the American sector.

One of the four, a woman refugee recently arrived from the East, was hit in the leg and collapsed just inside the Soviet Zone. Her three companions, including her husband, escaped unharmed into West Berlin but were unable to rescue the woman.

Teachers Said Too Clannish

PORTLAND (AP)—A former school teacher took Oregon teachers to task Monday, telling them they should stop talking only to other teachers.

Esther L. Middlewood, director of education for the Michigan Department of Mental Health, spoke at the opening session of the 50th annual convention of the Oregon Education Association here.

She said, "You have to meet, know and understand other people in your town to do a good teaching job."

Nearly 5,000 teachers attended the session. The association also dedicated its new headquarters here, a building which has been in use since last fall. The convention continues Tuesday.

Teachers Said Too Clannish

It is believed that a species of duck called Old Squaw dives deeper than any other duck, having been accidentally caught in fish nets 180 feet below the surface.

Teachers Said Too Clannish

He was charged with maliciously damaging the wiring of the model.

The model was a bit of intricately bent wire set in a base of concrete. It was submitted by British sculptor, blacksmith and Leeds University fellow, Reg Butler. His prize, awarded by the British Institute of Contemporary Art, was 4,500 pounds ($12,000).

The entry was judged best of 3,500 submitted by sculptors in 53 countries. The wire represents an iron cage, and a gallows on a dismal rock.
