

Lyons Names Marigold as Town Flower

Statesman News Service
LYONS—Marigolds have been named as the official flower of this North Santiam community, and the Lyons Garden Club is urging all home gardeners to display them in their yards this summer.

The club is planning a spring flower show for Friday, April 17, when bulb flowers will be featured. Mabel Downing is show chairman.

At its recent meeting, the club also discussed cleaning up roadsides in the area after members reported areas littered with paper and debris. The club is seeking cooperation from property owners in the matter.

Marquam Club Sees Tropical Plant Display

Statesman News Service
MARQUAM—A display of tropical plants in the hothouse at the Engval Edland farm was viewed by the Scotts Mills Utility and Beauty Garden Club Thursday evening.

The president, Mrs. Wanda Edland, officiated. Plans were discussed for the 11 o'clock show at Scotts Mills May 18 and the study of wild flowers and birds.

Mrs. W. McPherson was elected official representative to the National Garden convention in San Francisco.

The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Pauline Swartout April 9.

Miss Opal Smith, who spent the winter here with Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Smith, is now associated with the Inter-State Nurseries of Hamburg, Iowa.

Mrs. Emil Jacobson is convalescing at home after surgery at Silverton Hospital.

Ole Jacobson is home after being hospitalized with nose hemorrhage at Silverton Hospital.

Children Get Disease Shots

Statesman News Service
JEFFERSON—Forty-three grade school children and 15 pre-school children were given immunization shots at the well child conference Wednesday afternoon at Jefferson school. Mrs. Detring, Marion County health nurse, gave the shots.

Helping Mrs. Detring were Mrs. Leonard Marcum, Mrs. Robert Harris and Mrs. Oliver Stephenson.

Another well child conference is planned for Wednesday afternoon, April 8 from 1 to 3 o'clock, and will be held one day a month until further notice.

Any mothers are welcome to bring their pre-school children to these conferences and take advantage of the immunization shots.

Church Youth Attend Meet

Statesman News Service
ELLIOTT PRAIRIE—Gary and Anita Paulson, Donald and Betty Stoneking, and Paul Burkert Jr. attended the Pilgrim Fellowship State convention at Eugene over the week end. They accompanied a group from Smyrna and Hubbard and their pastor, the Rev. Ted Hastings. On Sunday, Brice Baker, Don Eppers Jr. and Raymond Schwabauer joined the group at Eugene.

A large group of friends of Gordon Connelley enjoyed open house at his home Sunday as a farewell party before he left on Wednesday for the armed forces.

Mrs. Ray Baker, Red Cross chairman for the Elliott Prairie district, reports $125 was contributed during the 1953 drive for funds.

Areas of the highlands in Scotland have been turned into cattle ranges much like those in the western part of the United States.
