

Superstition Is Defied at Buena Vista

Statesman News Service
BUENA VISTA—Thirteen may be unlucky for some people but Mrs. Harold Withrow defied all laws of superstition when she entertained for Mr. Withrow's birthday on Friday, March 13, by having 13 seated at the dinner table. Present were Mr. and Mrs. William Bacon and Betty Lou of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gruber, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Prather, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hultman and the Withrows.
 The Buena Vista-Highland Extension Unit will meet at the Buena Vista Community Hall on Tuesday, March 24, at 10:30. Mrs. Malno Reichert will have charge of the meeting on "Good Taste in Clothing". There will be a sack lunch at noon and members of the Highland unit will have charge of making the coffee. The woman's club will meet in the afternoon, with Mrs. Gilbert Loy and Mrs. L. N. Osborn as hostesses.
 Lieut. Richard Moler, who has been stationed in Virginia, was the guest of Farrel Rust Saturday. Lieut. Moler is on his way to Camp Pendleton, California.
 Tom McLaughlin of Bremerton, Wash., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant McLaughlin.
 William Pruiett of Buena Vista and president of Central High School F.F.A. chapter, is attending the silver anniversary state conference of the F.F.A. in Corvallis this week.

Mrs. Mathieu Dies at Stayton

Statesman News Service
STAYTON—Final rites for Mrs. Josephine Mathieu, 71, resident of this area for 67 years, will be held at 8:30 a. m. Friday at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church here. The Rev. Math Gelinas will officiate. Interment will be at Lone Oak Cemetery.
 Mrs. Mathieu died Tuesday at a Salem hospital following a confining illness of several months. Her death came 24 hours after the death of her brother Jacob Neibert, Stayton.
 The deceased was born Sept. 14, 1871 at Sheboygan, Wis., and came to Sublimity when four years old, later moving to Stayton. She was married to E. T. Mathieu in 1894.
 Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Theodore M. Edey, Wickenberg, Ariz.; a brother, Conrad Neibert, Stayton; a grandchild and two great-grandchildren.
