

Churches Join In Bible Study At Silverton

Statesman News Service
SILVERTON—Religious feature of next week at Silverton will be the Lenten Bible studies presented by the three Lutheran Churches, Immanuel, Calvary and Trinity, at Trinity Church, each evening at 8 o'clock Sunday through Thursday. The Rev. R. H. Rissmiller of the Lutheran Bible Institute of Seattle will direct the study, which is open to the public. Special music is also being arranged by the choirs of the churches.

At Immanuel Church, Luther League will meet a half hour earlier than usual, 7 p. m., to provide for dismissal prior to the program at Trinity. The Rev. A. W. Nelson will direct a discussion on "Biblical Baptism." Clean-up day will be observed at Immanuel starting at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday with a no-host luncheon at noon. Both men and women of the congregation will join in the annual pre-Easter event. Immanuel Young Married Couples Club will meet Friday at 8 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Furrer. Mrs. E. V. Swartz will give the topic.

Fifteen minutes of recorded sacred music will precede the Seventh Day Adventist Sabbath school at 9:30 Saturday morning with Mrs. Oliver Steffen in charge. The Rev. Neal Losey of the Spillman-Lyman evangelistic company, Salem, will speak at the 11 o'clock worship.

A men's team from Willamette District Ninety and Nine will give the 7:30 program Sunday night at First Christian Church. At the 11 o'clock service, the pastor, the Rev. Arthur Charles Bates, will continue his theme, "The Apostolic Church."

The Rev. R. H. Rissmiller of Seattle will be guest speaker Sunday at the 11 o'clock service at Calvary Church.

The senior high Youth Fellowship of Methodist Church will give the sound film, "No Greater Power," at a 7:30 worship program. Miss Sharon Beals, worship chairman, will lead a brief worship service. The public is invited to attend both. Miss Nancy Foote, MYF president, reports.

Temple Model Here Sunday

A world-famous model of the Wilderness Tabernacle will be in Salem at First Baptist Church on Sunday evening for a program dramatizing Jewish temple services.

The model, 10 feet high and 20 feet long, is being brought by Dr. Edmund Hains, evangelist and former pastor.

A cast with him and some local persons will be used in the dramatizations.

College Chorus At St. John's Sunday Night

The male chorus of Concordia College, Portland, will appear at St. John's Lutheran Church on Sunday at 8 p. m. This marks the last of seven appearances scheduled for a week's tour through the Willamette Valley and Southern Oregon.

For its sacred concert the chorus has drawn on church music of all ages. The program will include a two-part contrapuntal setting of "Wake, Awake" by Michael Praetorius, 16th century Lutheran composer; Christopher Tyr's "O Come, Ye Servants of the Lord," will represent 16th century English composers. The chorus will also sing settings by modern composers, such as "Lord Jesus Who Dost Love Me" by Matthew Lundquist; "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" by Hoeft-Nickel; and "A Mighty Fortress is Our God" by Noah Francis Ryder.

The 26 singers are students of Concordia Academy and College. Most are planning to become pastors or teachers in the Lutheran Church. Among the personnel of this chorus is Garry Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis, 1270 Peace St., Salem.

The chorus is under direction of Walter Keller, former director of the internationally famed Lutheran Hour Chorus.
