Any of Many Cheese Varieties Give Lift to Year 'Round Menus
By MAXINE BUREN
Statesman Woman's Editor
Cheese, that all time favorite, has a lot of variations and many uses for each type.

Cheddar type cheese of course is the one most persons think of when they hear "cheese" mentioned, but there are plenty of uses for other cheese too.
A cheese filling with different ingredients, particularly good on whole wheat bread, is made with cottage cheese and ground raisins. Another delicious combination is ground raisins, peanut butter and a bit of crisp chopped bacon and grated cheddar. Both these fillings are packed with an extra amount of good nutrition.
Cottage cheese becomes a pudding when this recipe is used:

CHEESE BREAD PUDDING
3 cups bread cubes 2 eggs, beaten
1 cup cottage cheese 1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 1/4 cups milk 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup melted butter 1/4 teaspoon grated lemon rind
Combine bread with cottage cheese, milk and melted butter; add remaining ingredients and pour into buttered casserole. Bake in moderate oven (325°) 1 hour or until a knife inserted in center comes out clean. Serve hot or cold with cream. Serves 6.
This towering cheese salad is practically a whole meal. Arrange a flat bed of cottage cheese on a garnished salad plate. On it place a slice of canned pineapple, next a canned peach half cup size up, and in it three cooked prunes stuffed with chopped almonds or walnuts.

Thin slices of raisin or prune nut bread are well known accompaniments for fruit salad, but here's another combination. Cut a thick slice of the fruit bread and place it on a lettuce-garnished salad plate. Cover with a layer of cottage cheese and finally top with a large golden canned peach half. You have a pretty open-faced salad sandwich.
Then there's cream cheese, another of the fine white cheeses, good for frequent using.
Stuffed celery makes a good nibbling food, either as an hors d'oeuvre or as a crisp dinner relish. For a simple filling, blend finely chopped walnuts with softened cream cheese. A sprinkling of minced parsley adds a bright touch of color.
FOR FRUIT FANCIER
If you're a fruit salad fancier, here's a delicious creamy dressing to serve on fresh, canned or dried fruits. Soften a 3-ounce package of cream cheese with a fork and blend in 1/2 cup apricot whole fruit nectar, beating until smooth. Add 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/4 cup mayonnaise and a dash of salt.
Cookery specialists offer these reminders for making the most of cheese in cooked dishes: Go easy with heat. That way the cheese melts completely and its flavor spreads evenly through the dish. Cheese cooked at too high heat or for too long gets tough and stringy. To speed melting and blending cheese, get it in small pieces before heating. Break, grate, slice, shave thin or run it through the meat grinder. Whenever possible mix cheese in sauce before adding to other ingredients. For cheese sauce, add 1 cup of finely grated cheese to 1 cup hot white sauce—thin or medium—and stir until the cheese melts.

Reception Will Fete Conklins

HALLS FERRY—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Conklin, Route 4, Box 213, will be honored on their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, March 22 at a reception at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Barker.
Bertha Webster and Edward Conklin were married at the home of his parents at White Bird, Idaho on March 19, 1903. Mrs. Conklin's mother, Mrs. Nellie Bollman, formerly of Chicago who now resides in Salem, will be present for the occasion.
The Conklins have six children, Earl Conklin, Klamath, Calif., James Conklin, Salem, Murry Conklin, Corvallis, Howard Conklin, Salem, Mrs. H. E. Barker and Mrs. Alton Smith, Salem. They have 13 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. The couple has lived in the Salem vicinity for 35 years.

On Etiquette

By Roberta Lee
Q. What should two persons do if introduced to each other for the second time?
A. If the occasion is a formal one, they both acknowledge the introduction and do not attempt any explanations; they would be embarrassing to the person making the introduction. However, if the occasion is an informal one, it is all right to recall the previous meeting.
Q. At a widow's second marriage, her first husband being deceased, should she invite the family of her first husband?
A. Yes, indeed, if the relationship has always been pleasant. Furthermore, these people should make every effort to attend.
Q. How do men and women seat themselves in a restaurant that has sofa seats?
A. The women always sit against the wall (or partition), and the men sit on the chairs facing them.

Illustrated at right is the new "UP BEAT" one-piece Jantzen swim suit that fits the individual with magic-molding Crinkelastie. Beautifully boned bra has figure accent and support. This one and many others will be shown at Miller's today for the first time. Special displays of sweaters and skirts made famous by Jantzen's fashion awareness will be especially noted by Miss Trask.
