

Presbyterians Order Study, Schedule Talks

Ordering of a building program study and property negotiations, and scheduling of a sermon on government investigations, a report on legislation and two talks on China missions feature the current week's program at First Presbyterian Church.

The annual congregational meeting Thursday evening adopted a resolution providing that the church should plan to remain in its present location, within the State Capitol Mall, as agreed recently by the State Board of Control.

Men's Leader

Loren M. Ness (above) of Minneapolis, national boys' work director for the Evangelical Lutheran Church Brotherhood, will conduct the Brotherhood's Willamette Circuit Zone meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Grace Lutheran Church of Salem.

Cana Meeting On Thursday

The Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J., of St. Louis, Mo., noted writer and lecturer, will conduct a Cana Conference at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in St. Joseph's Parish Hall.

After his talk on Christian marriage will be discussion and refreshments. Reservations are necessary. After Tuesday, a limited number will be open to those outside the parish.

Lord's trip West is under auspices of the Maryhurst College Alumnae Association.

Berg to Talk Sunday At Unitarian Meet

"Predicament of the Tolerant" will be discussed by Walter L. Berg, on the teaching staff of Willamette University, at the service of Salem Unitarian Fellowship at 10:45 a.m. Sunday.

Friday at 8 p.m. the Unitarian discussion group will meet at the Donald A. Schasre home, 627 1/2 N. Winter St.

To implement this arrangement, the congregation authorized negotiations to secure three lots north of the church, from private owners, for expansion purposes and sale to the state or otherwise of three lots already owned by the church across the Winter-Chemeketa Streets intersection. The state's purchase of the latter is proposed in House Bill 744 now in committee.

The membership also agreed that studies should be undertaken at once to plan for an orderly building program.

For Sunday morning's worship services at 9:45 and 11, Dr. Paul N. Poling, pastor, announced he will preach on "Christian Faith and Loyalty," the relationship of civil liberties to freedom and security of the nation. This is in regard to recent proposals for Congressional investigation of churches and ministers.

Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. the Men's Club will hear State Sen. Philip S. Hitchcock of Klamath Falls give a review of 1953 legislation of special concern to church people.

Dr. Ralph C. Lewis, one of the last Presbyterian missionaries to leave Communist China, will be the speaker Wednesday for the Women's Association in the afternoon and for the mid-week service at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Lewis went to China 20 years ago as a medical missionary. His evening talk will be the fourth in a series by the church on the world-wide mission.

Elections Thursday night indicated the following: To the session—Paul Bale, Sidney Boise, Moody Benner, Harold Phillippe, James Glass, Barney Van Onsenord, Otto J. Wilson and Dr. Robert Wull; to the board of deacons—T. Harold Tomlinson, J. Parker Lineberry, Eugene Manock, Ervin L. Peterson, Jason Lee, Arthur Atherton, Mrs. G. Clinton Weeks, Mrs. Mable Clock, Dr. Robert Siddoway, Hal DeSart; to the board of trustees—Elmer O. Berg, Irvan Stewart, Mrs. Mark Astrup.

Selected as Sunday school officers were J. J. Fitzsimons, superintendent; Frank Tatum, assistant; Ben Schmoeker, secretary; E. A. Collier, treasurer.

Augustana Choir Due

The nationally known choir of Augustana College, Rock Island, Ill., is to sing at Portland Civic Auditorium on Tuesday, April 21.

Church Group Prepare for Drama

Presentation of "The Rock," an Easter season play, by the Young Adult group of First Congregational Church, will be at 8 p.m. Sunday in the church. An offering will be taken. The cast includes, from left, Alicia Kanner, Edith Torgerson, Fred Bradley, William Galloway and Helen Hakanson. Others are Ralph Hendrickson, William Berndt, Jerry Smith, John Pleines, Marvin Nettleton and Marlene Hendrickson. Mrs. Leon Brown is coach, and John Hakanson is general chairman.

Dedication, Dinners Due At Silverton

SILVERTON—The Rev. Douglas Harrell, pastor, will dedicate the furnishings of the new Methodist Church at Sunday morning's 11 o'clock service.

Memorial furnishings to be dedicated include: The altar to the memory of Mrs. Herman Naegeli; baptismal font by Mr. and Mrs. Craig Clark in honor of their children, Craig Jr., and Colleen; the new flags, presented by Mr. and Mrs. John Lalicker.

Harrell will begin Sunday a series of sermons dealing with problems of contemporary living.

Fellowship dinner will follow the morning service at Trinity Lutheran Church. Hosts are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Torvend, Miss Evelyn Torvend, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Torvend, Mrs. Ben Wage, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gustafson and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Olsen. At Lutheran League a Bible study from the Phillipsians will be held by Mrs. J. A. Luthro.

Calvary Lutheran Church has announced its quarterly meeting for Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the church.

Following the morning services at Immanuel Lutheran Church Mrs. Clarence Sundet is chairman of the serving committee which includes Mrs. R. B. Lester, Mrs. Albert Tipper, Mrs. Martin Maurer, Mrs. Neils Nelson, Mrs. Bertha Ostgaard, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Mrs. Roy Rieder, Mrs. Neils Torresdal and Mrs. Henry Johnson.

Choir Due

Don Hustad (above) will direct the 45-voice Moody Chorale, from Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, in a concert of sacred music Friday evening at First Baptist Church. The choir is on a 6,000-mile tour of the West.

Pastor Quits At Kingwood; Choir Slated

The Rev. Alex H. Sauerwein, pastor of Kingwood Bible Church for the past 2 1/2 years has submitted his resignation. He will remain at the church for another month or two before going into itinerant Bible teaching and conference work.

A successor has not been named. Sauerwein has held pastorates in many sections of the country. The 36-voice choir of Pacific Bible Institute of Fresno will sing in the Sunday morning worship service at the Kingwood Bible church. The Rev. Alex H. Sauerwein will preach.

The cappella choir is on a concert tour which will take them to British Columbia. They plan to return and give a full concert in the Kingwood Church on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mission Meet Ends Sunday At Alliance

The World Missions Conference, under way this week in Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, will come to a close Sunday with missionaries speaking four times.

The Rev. Arthur Mouw, missionary to Borneo and West Coast radio speaker, will speak at 9:45 to an open session of the Sunday school, and at 11 o'clock to the congregation. At 3 o'clock an afternoon missionary rally is set for the public with Mouw and all other missionary speakers of the week.

The conference closes with the service at 7 p.m. Features will include the Rev. Orville Brooks of Syria and a missionary film short photographed by him on the field. The annual voluntary missionary offering is being received at all services, according to the Rev. Paul W. Gunther, pastor.

Church Editor Due At Free Methodist

Dr. B. L. Oimstead, general editor of national Sunday School literature published by the Light and Life Press of Winona Lake, Ind., will speak Sunday during the 11 o'clock worship at Salem Free Methodist church. The pastor, the Rev. D. L. Fenwick, will bring the evening message.

Gates to Close Prophecy Study

Dr. C. P. Gates, district superintendent, will conclude his prophetic studies as "God's Plan of the Ages" Sunday night at Englewood Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Dr. Gates will point out some of the signs of the second coming of Christ as set forth in the Bible.

The audience will be invited to ask questions.

Conservative Baptists Start New Church for West Salem

Plans for a new Conservative Baptist Church to be established in West Salem were announced Friday after a meeting of the executive officers of the Conservative Baptist Association of Oregon.

This is part of the state-wide program of expansion of the Association in organizing new churches, 37 in the past four years. The area in West Salem has long been under consideration by the association as a possible site. The West Salem City building auditorium has been rented for church and Sunday School services, to begin Sunday, April 26.

The Rev. Elvin Fast, former pastor of the Conservative Baptist Church in Scio, will be the minister.

Others participating in the discussions were the moderator of the association, John W. Foster of Portland; Dr. John B. Houser, pastor of First Baptist Church of Lebanon; Dr. Lloyd T. Anderson, pastor of First Baptist Church of Salem; the Rev. Kenneth A. Tobias, field director, and the Rev. Charles F. Loise, office manager and director of Christian education for the association.

New Mission Emblem Ready

A new missionary focal point added to the sanctuary of First Baptist Church will be unveiled during the Sunday evening gospel service.

The missionary emblem is in the form of two world globes with a lighted torch between. Art work has been done by Miss Darlene Engdahl of Salem. The emblem has been given in memory of one of the late members of the church.

65th Episcopal Conclave Due At Corvallis

Sixty-fifth annual convention of the Oregon Episcopal Diocese will open Sunday evening in Corvallis, along with annual sessions of the Women's Auxiliary.

Bishop Benjamin D. Dagwell will deliver his annual address at 7:30 p.m. Sunday to start the three-day meeting in the OSC Memorial Union Building. St. Paul's choir from Salem will join other singers of the area in this service.

Delegates from St. Paul's Church will be Wallace Carson, Robert M. Fitzmaurice, Kenneth Wilson and Dr. Dean K. Brooks, and alternates Carl P. Armstrong, Charles H. Heitzel, W. Charles D. Wood and Richard A. Rawlins.

Auxiliary delegates will be Mrs. J. E. Lavy, Mrs. R. D. Barton, Mrs. Gordon Shattuck, Mrs. J. F. Causey, Mrs. George L. Hill, Mrs. Louise Muller and Miss Elizabeth Porter.

The Rev. George H. Swift, rector, and Mrs. Swift will attend.

Business is expected to include admission of four congregations as parishes, including St. Martin's Church of Lebanon.

Film Set Sunday At Bethel Baptist

The young people of Bethel Baptist Church will present to the public the film, "The Great Discovery," at the 7:30 service Sunday evening.

The film stars Colleen Townsend, a former Hollywood actress now studying theology. She plays the part of a girl who lacks inner peace and happiness. In the Christian atmosphere of a college she finds herself out of step, but then a new life opens.

Alumni of Biola To Meet Monday

Dr. James Christian, registrar at Bible Institute of Los Angeles and vice president of the alumni association, will be the special speaker at a meeting of the Biola Alumni on Monday at 7:30 p.m. at Four Corners Baptist Church.

All persons who have graduated from or attended Biola or who are interested in attending the school, are invited to the meeting.
