Two-Man Show Opens Today

Two-man art show featuring the works of Demitrios Jamison and Pearl B. Heath will be exhibited in the Willamette University art gallery, opening today and running through April 30. Dr. Cameron Paulin, art director announces. Oil paintings, drawings and lithographs by Jamison will be shown. The young artist, who was awarded an European art scholarship in 1949, is currently showing at the Corcoran Gallery in Washington, D. C.

He has been granted purchase prizes from Denver, St. Louis and Portland art museums. Jamison received his B.F.A. degree from St. Louis University and M.F.A. from University of Illinois.

Pearl B. Heath, head of the art department at Oregon College of Education in Monmouth, has a group of hand-wrought silver on display. Last summer Mrs. Heath studied with Herr Hans Pflueger in Zurich, Switzerland. She holds B.A. and M.A. degrees from San Jose College and University of Oregon. She has also studied at the Louvre in Paris and the Shaeffer School in San Francisco.

The Willamette University art gallery, on southwest campus, is open to the public from 9 to 4 weekdays.

Oak Knoll Golfers Play

The Oak Knoll Ladies Golf Club opened its season of play on Wednesday with 35 attending. Regular play will be resumed each Wednesday morning throughout the season. Wednesday's play was for low putts with Mrs. Merritt Trust, Mrs. Mrs. Clifford Ellis, second, and Mrs. Ralph Van Blericom, third. Prizes were cakes baked by Mrs. James McAlvin, Mrs. Paul Silke and Mrs. Leland Plank.

Salem Chapter of the African Violet Society will meet Friday night at the Aumsville home of Mrs. Irvin Bartels, Route 1, Box 261, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Wilson Bauman will be the co-hostess. During the evening there will be a general discussion on the flower show to be held in May.
