Around Town...

By JERYME ENGLISH
A GRAND TURNOUT... for the first monthly fashion luncheon at the Marion Hotel on Monday... Tables arranged in the Mirror Room with rosebud and carnation boutonnières for the guests... A small runway in the center of the room, where the models first appeared... later walking among the tables... hanging from the ceiling on a large white coat hanger a white bird cage filled with tulips and blossoms... Clothes for leisure summer days, teas and "after five" shown by the attractive models...

Glimpsed... at one of the larger tables... Mrs. Henry A. Simmons, Mrs. Harris Lietz, Mrs. C. Lester Newman, Mrs. William E. Paulus, Mrs. Richard A. Meyer... Mrs. Leslie Burdette, who is busy with plans for daughter, Leslyn's June wedding... Mrs. William Schlitt and Mrs. Ellis Von Eschen... the latter chic in an almond beige suit with white cuffs and collar and a small white chapeau... the above group all members of a bridge club... A group of the young marrieds at another large table... Mrs. John Fitzmaurice, Mrs. Alton Chamberlain, Mrs. Ernest Hobbs, Mrs. Hubert Williamson, Mrs. Theodore Flook, Mrs. William Pettit, Mrs. Ernest Miller and Mrs. Frank Brown...

Tables for two... Mrs. Hall Lusk and Mrs. Charles E. Wagner... Mrs. Linn C. Smith and Mrs. James B. Young... Mrs. Glenn Woody and Mrs. Joseph Himmel... Three others noted... Mrs. Keith Powell, Mrs. Prince W. Byrd and Mrs. Karl Steiner... Mrs. Karl Becke, all eyes on her daughter, Miriam, (Mrs. William Shinn), one of the models, Mrs. Donald A. Young and Mrs. William Dolf... In another group... Mrs. John Steelhammer, Mrs. Richard L. Cooley and Mrs. Frederick Bradshaw... the latter chic in a grey outfit with white straw enhanced with black and red trim... Betty soon to leave for San Francisco to meet her Navy lieutenant husband, who has been overseas...

Luncheon guests... of Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea were Mrs. Moritz Pederson, Mrs. Karl Horton and Mrs. Rufus Holman of Portland, and Mrs. George E. Emigh... Mrs. Holman's daughter, Mrs. Willis Ross, one of the models for the show... Mrs. Holman distinctive in a grey outfit, her shell style hat of white and silver sprinkled with brilliants... Mrs. Gordon Hadley was over from Independence for the opening luncheon...

Welcome home... for Mrs. James C. Drury and daughter, Joan Newcomb, who were lunching with Mrs. Chester A. Downs... Mrs. Drury and Joan have been in New York-City since fall and will be joined in June by Prof. Drury... they came west by way of California to visit the Drury's youngest son, Jon, who is attending the Thatcher School for Boys at Ojai... With Mrs. Glenn Stevens were Mrs. A. B. Davis, a newcomer in the capital, Mrs. Harold Busick, wearing a good-looking grey tailleur, and Mrs. Alfred Gerlinger... Incidentally Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Raymond Busick will be hostesses for a coffee party on April 28 at the former's home in welcome to Mrs. Davis...

Foursome spotted... Mrs. Kenneth Potts, Mrs. Edward Roth, Mrs. Leon Perry and Mrs. Garlea Simpson... the latter wearing the ever popular navy blue and white polka dot with a navy stole lined in the polka dot... Mrs. W. E. Hutchens, Mrs. Gene Vandeneynde, Mrs. Roy Houck and Mrs. Edgar A. Linden together... At another table... Mrs. Russell E. Pratt, Mrs. Richard A. Rawlinson, Mrs. Frank Test and Mrs. Ralph Wirth... the latter in a pearl grey match box jacket suit with white chapeau... Nearby sat Mrs. Otto J. Wilson, Mrs. Glenn Fravel, Mrs. James Armpriest and Mrs. Bruce V. Wynyarden... a perky red straw hat accenting Mrs. VanWynyarden's navy blue outfit... Having lunch... Mrs. Robert Sprague, Mrs. Owen Miller, Mrs. Richard Chambers and Mrs. George Grabenhorst Jr...

More of the same... Mrs. Douglas Thompson, wearing a wide brimmed red straw with her grey suit, seen lunching with Mrs. Irvin B. Hill, Mrs. Paul E. Wilson and Mrs. H. C. Saalfeld... Of the young married set... Mrs. Thomas A. Roberts Jr., Mrs. Robert Sullivan, Mrs. Robert Elgin, Mrs. Robert W. Gormsen, Mrs. Roger M. Schnell and Mrs. Rollin Haag... the latter donning a white stole with her white and black full skirted outfit and a fetching red braided hat... Others noted... Mrs. John Davis with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, and Mrs. William G. Stacey... Mrs. Erwin Battersman pinning violets to her navy blue ensemble... Golfers together... Mrs. Howard Wicklund and Mrs. Millard Pekar... Business women noted among the crowd... Mrs. P. Dixon Van Ausdell Jr., Mrs. Merle Wilgers, Mrs. Robert E. Jones, Mrs. Darrell Waller, Mrs. Daesy Chance, Miss Patricia Sebastian and Mrs. Jean Ogden...

TIDBITS OF NEWS... From Portland comes word of the birth of a son, Scott Michael, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burlingham on April 18 at the Emanuel Hospital... The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Willard Rouse of Olympia, Wash. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burlingham of Salem... A little girl... Karen Louise, was born to AM 2/c and Mrs. Robert Stevens on April 16 in Wilmington, Delaware... The baby, who tipped the scales at one ounce over seven pounds, is the granddaughter of Mrs. Arthur G. Upston Jr. of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Accola of Briggsdale, Colorado... The great-grandparents are Frank Simons of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dunn of Craig, Colorado... the baby's father is stationed at Newcastle County Air Force Base at Wilmington...

Salem AAUW Members Are Nominated

Two members of the Salem branch of AAUW have been included in the list of those nominated for state offices in that organization, it was announced Saturday at the luncheon held at the American Legion Club. Mrs. Robert V. Thornton, who now serves as state vice president, has been nominated for state president and Mrs. Thomas Churchill, president of the Salem branch, for the state conference will be in Klamath Falls this week end.

During the business meeting Miss Mildred Christenson, chairman of the nominating committee for the Salem branch announced the following names to be presented for election at the May meeting: Mrs. Arthur Sprague, president; Mrs. John Hann, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Layport, secretary; Mrs. Stanley Butler, treasurer, and Mrs. E. W. Rector, student loan trustee.

Frank M. Parcher spoke on "Indians are People." He was assisted by Mrs. Parcher who sang two Indian songs learned directly from native Indian singers, with wide accompaniment and three songs accompanied by Mrs. Jason Lee at the piano including a Navajo song and numbers by Charles Wakefield Cadman. For seven years Mr. Parcher worked in the Indian Service as trouble shooter and believes that while people in general are to be blamed for any ill treatment of the Indians, not the Government. He has found both the Indians and whites to be intolerant of each other and says each should respect the customs and manners of the other in any dealings, either social or business, that might occur. Americans should realize the importance of this attitude because on a worldwide basis we shall be contacting and working with many diverse cultures and must accept the fact these natives are "people," too.

Consequently many Indians return to the reservation not because of lack of ambition but to avoid race distinction. Mr. Parcher exhibited many examples of Indian crafts including baskets, rattles, etc., that he has collected from various tribes.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Russell Beautier, Miss Lillian Dato and Mrs. E. T. Taggart. The tables were decorated with bouquets of lilac and apple blossoms provided by Mrs. Joseph Franko. The final meeting of the year will be held Thursday evening, May 14, at Baxter Hall at Willamette to honor graduating senior women.

Gardeners to Meet

LIBERTY—Mrs. Ella Lange-worthy will be hostess to the "Wee Weeders" Garden club on Tuesday, April 21, at 1 o'clock dessert luncheon at her home on Sunnyside Road. The group will make plans for the Garden Council's spring show to be held in May. Each member is asked to bring suggestions for arrangements, for parties and for special occasion. There will be an election of officers.

The Missouri Club held its April meeting at the home of Mrs. R. E. Goerke. Plans were made for the May 15 no-host luncheon meeting at the home of Mrs. E. B. Kason, 681 Center St., at 12:30 o'clock.

More Comfort Wearing FALSE TEETH
Here is a pleasant way to overcome loose plate discomfort. PASTETH, an improved powder, sprinkled on upper and lower plates holds them firmer so that they feel more comfortable. No gummy, gooey, sticky taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get PASTETH today at any drug store.

Mrs. Kemper will Head Mothers

Mrs. Halbert Kemper was elected president of Washington School Mothers at a meeting held on Thursday afternoon at the school. Also elected were Mrs. Maynard Twest, vice-president, Mrs. Bert Lucas, secretary, Mrs. Dennis Spencer, treasurer.

The group recently purchased a table cloth and accessories to be used at the teas which follow the meetings, and made a final payment on the intercommunication system for the school. During the meeting, pupils of Miss Klabo's second grade and Mrs. Anna Martin's fourth grade sang. Hostesses were Mrs. J. W. Sheres, Mrs. Berwyn Maxwell, Mrs. Edmond Spent and Mrs. John Hagen. Mrs. Elizabeth Lentz was in charge of the pre-school nursery.
